

The Armow Women's Institute of Kincardine were recent guests at a taping of Act Fast in the studios of CFPL-TV, London. The group raised $100 on the show. Pictured in the photo are, left to right, Mrs. Allan Hunter, host Bill Brady, and president Mrs. Wm. Eskrick. The show was aired Sunday November 25.

Scrp V3-
15

Sandra Eskrick of Kincardine received her R.N.A. from the School of Nursing in Toronto on December 21, 1973 and is now employed by Victoria Hospital in London.

AUCTION SALE

of

MACHINERY

for Walter Norman, north 1/2 lot 6, Con. 7, Kincardine Twp., 3 3/4 mile north of Kincardine and 1 1/4 mile east of 21 Highway.

MONDAY, JULY 30th

at 1:30 o'clock

List includes: David Brown 990 tractor with loader and power steering; M-M model U tractor; George White 36 ft. bale and grain elevator with 1 horse el. motor; New Holland no. 68 baler; New Holland no. 327 manure spreader PTO drive; Robert Bell 28-45 grain thresher with high elevator and straw cutter on rubber drive belt; Massey Harris no. 20 A 15 run seed drill; Kon-sklde 10 ft. cultivator; Bissell 10 ft. packer; John Deere 7 ft. binder; New Idea 4 bar side rake; New Idea 7 ft. mower; I.H.C. 3 furrow rex bottom plough; 2 roller bearing wagons with racks; Gehl Hammermill; M-M disc; 6 section harrow; 6 ft. horse drawn mower; cedar posts; telephone poles; wagon box; lumber; beam scales; tractor chains: 6 - 750 - 20 tires; tools: 10 ton mixed grain; and other items.

No reserve as Farm has Been Sold

TERM Mr. James Husk held a successful auction sale on Monday afternoon with Gordon L. Ribey acting as auctioneer. Mr. and Mrs. Husk have sold their farm to Mr. Douglas Green and are taking up residence in Kincardine.

Kingarf celebrates 107th anniversary

St. Matthew's Anglican Church Kingarf was very nicely decorated with flowers, fruit, vegetables and sprays of beautiful coloured maple leaves on Sunday, Sept. 23 at 11 a.m. the occasion being the Harvest Home and the 107th anniversary of the congregation.

The service was conducted by the rector Rev. Neil Carver who welcomed and introduced the guest minister, The Right Reverend W.A. Townshend D.D.-L.L.D.; he also welcomed Mrs. Townshend, and the large crowd in attendance, many of those present were former members of the Parish of Bervie, Kingarf and Kinlough where Rev. Townshend served from 1926-29. Rev. Townshend began his address expressing his appreciation for the invitation back to St. Matthews; he mentioned the happy years he and his wife spent in the parish recalling some things he felt very special. One was the Tom Siegel of the Kincardine Township Tiverton Public School was the top public speaker from schools in this district and placed third in county competition held in Paisley on Saturday.