

BADGES

This is the official badge of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario. Every member is entitled to wear this pin.

As a member of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario you are also a member of Federated Women's Institutes of Canada. This is the official badge of Federated Women's Institutes of Canada and you may also wear this badge.

You are also a member of Associated Country Women of the World. This is the official badge of the world organization. You may wear this badge too.

When attending your branch meeting or any meeting associated with the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario wear this badge at the top. If you are attending a Federated Women's Institutes of Canada function you would wear their badge at the top; likewise when attending an Associated Country Women of the World conference like the one being held in Vancouver, British Columbia, in June of this year, their badge would be placed at the top. Wear your badge or badges proudly on your left side. Remember these are a badge not a piece of decorative jewellery.

