

The Erland Lee Homestead

Miss Marjorie Lee in her home at Hamilton holding picture of her father, Erland Lee, on table mother and brother, Frank.

Pioneer Kitchen — 1800 — sideboard owned by Lee's, the oldest piece of furniture in the Home.

Left to right: Miss Helen McKercher, Miss Austin Zoeller and Mrs. E. V. Fulton admiring the most recent addition to the Hoodless Homestead — a silver set left to the Macdonald Institute, Guelph, by Miss Muriel Bostwick, granddaughter of Mrs. Hoodless.

1971

All articles displayed in the "Lee" kitchen gifts from individuals or branches.