Rosie Laidler is skating her way to Austria.

The Kincardine figure skater has been named to Team Canada for the 2017 Special Olympics World Winter Games in Austria.

It has been a good year for Laidler, a member of both the Kincardine Skating Club and the Ripley-Huron Skating Club. She capped off her season with a double-medal performance at the Special Olympics Canada Winter Games in Corner Brook, Newfoundland.

Laidler has won numerous medals at the local, provincial and national levels in her skating career. She is one of the country's highest ranked Special Olympics Level IV skaters.

Laidler, along with her local coach Lorilee Nelson, are to attend a four-day Skate Canada training camp in Orangeville later this month. After that, it will be time to go to work preparing for the World Winter Games.
