

No race can prosper till it learns there is as much dignity in tilling a field as there is in writing a poem.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

A COUNTRY IS ONLY AS STRONG AS ITS AGRICULTURE

Lest we forget: Dignity is born of honesty, self-respect, determination and hard work—the province of the farmer. It is generations of farm families caring for the land, the crops, the animals and each other. It founded a nation, guided its growth and will determine its future. That's dignity.
