Hello again,

Just took another look. I wonder if the last person in row 1, photo 5 might be Mary MacKay. She closely resembles her daughter Ruth.

Hi Jane,

I am trying to better organize the photo books and get things labelled as accurately as possible. It appears you were teaching people how to sew in a zipper. Do all of these photos belong to that event or are some from another occasion . If you have names for each of these, I would appreciate that. The other event was an anniversary event at which Bill Kaulbfleisch and Al Kaufman entertained . The two events are put in back to back but there are no dates either so am only going by the age of the photos.

Thanks.

B.
