

Please answer the following questions...

1	Did you review the Tweedsmuir charts on the FWIO website?	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Yes	<input type="radio"/> No
	If yes, are there any corrections or updates needed	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="radio"/> No
	If yes, please provide updates by either completing the following questions or note the changes on an attached sheet. We are not sure what to count. We have one Tweedsmuir book and five scrapbooks plus another small one made for our 100th anniversary which is in digital format and print as well as a quilt book.
2.	Did you close (complete) one or more Tweedsmuir volumes this year?	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Yes	<input type="radio"/> No
	If Yes, please specify number of volumes:	one all inclusive scrapbook
	Total number of pages:	about 200
	Location of Volumes:	my home except for original copy of Tweedsmuir
3	Has the location of the Tweedsmuir collection changed this year?	<input type="radio"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="radio"/> No
	If yes, please provide details, including quantity of books: As far as I can tell we have only one Tweedsmuir book as such and the rest are scrapbooks containing community history and institute events.
4	Were any or all of the Tweedsmuir collections photocopied, digitized, published or microfilmed this year?	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="radio"/> No
	If yes, please provide details: The scrapbook clippings were photocopied after each page was configured. For no.5 we are planning a Braemar Tweedsmuir Tea in April to give members and a few guests a chance to look at the books. We tried at a meeting but there was no time to really delve into them. Also three of us attended the Tweedsmuir Workshop in Shedden. (Mary Mackay, Mary Walton, Bernice Marsland)
5	Please briefly report on any other work accomplished this year, and how the Tweedsmuir collection was remembered at your meetings. New topic discussions are welcome. (Please provide on an attached sheet).

THIS FORM MAY BE PHOTOCOPIED.
