

All-White Setting In Church Scene Of Sharples-Huart Vows

An all-white setting of 'mums and gladioli with ferns in glowing candlelight decorated Knox Presbyterian Church for the wedding of Linda Margaret Huart and Lloyd James Sharples.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. W. E. Huart, 861 Dufferin St., and the late Mr. Huart and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Sharples, RR 5, Embro.

Rev. William Henderson officiated for the double-ring ceremony and the CGIT of the church formed a guard of honor for the couple and their wedding guests. Miss Vera Zwicker was organist and accompanied soloist Mrs. Neil Hodgins who sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" prior to the service, "The Lord's Prayer" during the service and "Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by Rev. G. L. Douglas of Willowdale, the bride wore a wedding gown of nylon organza appliqued with hand clipped Chantilly lace. The bodice was made with lily point sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Sequin and seed pearl embroidery enhanced the front floating panel of the full length skirt. A nylon organza pill box headdress held her veil of nylon tulle edged with Chantilly lace and she carried a white Bible crested with a white orchid and satin streamers.

ATTENDANTS

Alice Dickinson of Woodstock was maid of honor with Marie Sharples of Embro and Betty Lou Howe of Woodstock as bridesmaids.

The attendants were identically gowned in floor length creations of silver rust peau de soie with matching cummerbunds and accessories. They carried arrangements of gold and bronze 'mums.

Flower girls Peggy Shrumm and Linda Vollmershausen wore floor length jacket dresses of gold crystal charm with matching accessories. They carried baskets of gold and bronze 'mums.

Gerald Masters of Embro performed the duties of best man and guests were ushered by Robert Sharples of Embro and Wilfred Harcourt of Woodstock.

Bronze and white 'mums decorated the church parlor for the reception where the bride's mother received wearing a gold and white metallic brocade dress with matching hat, black and white accessories and a corsage of bronze 'mums.

The bridegroom's mother chose a mink and brown silk brocade ensemble with beige and brown accessories and a corsage of bronze 'mums.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD J. SHARPLES

For a honeymoon in Northern Ontario and the United States, the bride travelled in a beige double knit jacket dress with deep brown accessories and a corsage of orange delight roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Sharples will reside at RR 2, Embro.

Guests attended the wedding from Willowdale, Galt, Brantford, Stratford, Ingersoll, London, Dorchester, Tillsonburg, Embro, Bright and Woodstock.

PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a number of pre-nuptial parties. Mrs. Huart was hostess at a trousseau tea honoring her daughter with guests received by Mrs. Huart, the bride-elect and Mrs. Sharples. The bridegroom's grandmothers Mrs. Sharples sr. and Mrs. Edward Sharron also greeted guests.

Pink and white carnations and white tapers decorated the tea table and tea was poured by Mrs. Alex MacKenzie, Mrs. W. K. Bell, Mrs. Anne Beir and Mrs. Robert Sutherland.

Trousseau was displayed by Alice Dickinson and gifts were in charge of Marie Sharples and Betty Lou Howe. Guests were served by Yvette Jensen, Carol Perry, Mrs. Gloria Jelous, Mrs. Robert Moon, Mrs. Gerry King, and Mrs. Blaine Jamieson.

Mrs. Alan Shaw and Mrs. Eric Shaw of Stratford convened supplies and Nancy Shaw was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. W. K. Bell and Mrs. William Douglas were joint hostesses at Mrs. Bell's home for a linen shower and family members attended a miscellaneous shower for the bride at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Vollmershausen who was assisted by her daughter Betty.

Mrs. Waldo Young was hostess to members of the Young Women's Guild of Knox Church for a shower honoring the bride and Knox CGIT members held a personal shower at the home of Mrs. Betty Smith who was assisted by Nancy Smith. The choir of the church presented her with a gift and the staff of Westbrook, Winlaw and Douglas also made a presentation to the bride.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD D. C. WILKER

Pair Exchange Vows In Embro Manse

A pretty afternoon wedding took place at Knox United church manse, Embro when Joyce Edith McGregor and Donald David George Wilker were married in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. H. C. Benson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGregor, Embro, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilker, RR 2 Tavistock.

Given in marriage by her father the bride looked lovely in a floor length gown of nylon organza, styled with lily point sleeves, sweetheart neckline and with a large bow at the back. The neckline and front of the gown were further accented by hand-clipped lace and sequins. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Matron of honor Mrs. Ronald Rudy of Embro chose a gown of turquoise blue bemberg organza featuring a scoop neckline cap sleeves and controlled skirt with a Brussels lace panel on the back of the skirt. Her headdress was petal points of turquoise organza and she carried a nosegay of pink roses and white 'mums.

Duties of best man were carried out by Walter Wilker of Tavistock.

The reception was held at Clarks Restaurant, Ingersoll.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a red, double-knit suit with black accessories and a corsage of white baby 'mums.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Wilker will reside in Woodstock. (Photo by Walker)
