

70 Years
Old & Still Looking Great
Grandma

Erin, Dava,
Cassie, Julie,
Kimberley,
Amy

OXFORD SHOPPING NEWS LIMITED Tuesday, January 24, 1989

Birthdays

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
#70
CAL

Love Julie,
Kimberly, Amy,
Cassie, Erin &
Davina

3/4

SEEK QUEEN'S CROWN

The new Embro Zorra Fair Queen will be crowned Sept. 17. Those vying for the crown are, front row: Marcia Walters, Colleen Butt.

Back row, from left: Dorothy McKay, Barb Muir, Pauline Distler, and reigning queen Brenda Holden. (Staff photo)

TOP HOLSTEIN HERDS -- The Oxford Holstein Association held its annual banquet and dance recently in Woodstock. Owners of the top 10 herds, for production in the county, were presented with plaques. From left, were Donald Doan of RR 1, Norwich, fifth; Blair Kelner of RR4, Woodstock, fourth; Doug Killing of RR 5, Embro, third; Clarence Markus of RR1, Beachville (representing Markvale Holsteins), second; Phillip Alyea of RR 4, Woodstock, first; Barry Smith of Burgessville (representing Clearcreek Farms), sixth; John VanWyk of RR 4, Woodstock, seventh; Murray Pearson of RR 4, Woodstock, Thamesford, eighth; and Leo Hetherington of RR 1, Brownsville (representing Maple Heather Farms Ltd.), 10th.

(Staff Photo - Heather Buchanan)

1987