QUAKER DAYS

THE BUILDING (pictured above) that has housed the Norwich Museum since 1970 was constructed in 1889 as a meeting house where Quakers met and worshipped. (Staff photos)

PYE — As the result of an accident on Friday, July 21, 1989, Valerie A. Pye of R.R.2 Tavistock in her 42nd year. Beloved wife of Clare Pye. Dear mother of Amberly, Danny and Nathan, all at home.
