

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ANNIVERSARY

1. It was Eighteen Ninety-seven a great tradition began-
Mr. Lee and Mrs. Hoodless formulated a plan-So good friends could get together to learn to cook and to sew-
They organized an Institute where rural women could go.
2. They have taught folk all the health rules, and to eat to keep them well,
They have worked to train good leaders, to help each one help himself,
They campaigned to give us safe milk, to educate young mothers too,
Now to give the world clean water is the goal they keep in view.
3. You have formed a chain of friendship which now encircles the earth,
You have learned to share with others in sorrow and mirth,
For when we get acquainted we will surely understand,
That women of the world all strive for peace in every land.

"INSTITUTE MEETS"

to the tune of "Our Boys will Shine To-night."

Institute meets to-night, Institute meets!
Institute meets to-night, Old friends we'll greet,
You're all dressed up to-night,
Don't you look sweet,
When the work's all done, and it's time for fun,
Institute meets.
