provincial magazine "Home and Country". She also challenged each member to take part in a "Gas Out" campaign against the high price of fuel. The request is for drivers to avoid fueling up from April 7-9, 2000, as "a silent way to have our voices heard against rising fuel prices.

Answers to the roll call, "Something New You Have Tried," revealed the ladies have been busy with new recipes, new computer technology and new ways to combat moles in flower beds.

Each person brought items to sell for a "Bring and Buy" auction. Verna Sewers capably auctioned the muffins, tea biscuits, pies and other items. It was agreed to donate $50 from the proceeds to the Women's House of Bruce County.

The annual meeting (including a pot luck lunch) will be held April 8, 2000
