

Sept. 2001

V3.36

Dan Charuk / Grey-Bruce This Week

Eve Scott of Walkerton, signs a book of condolences in Holst Office Supply Store in Walkerton Friday, while store owner Eugene Holst looks over her shoulder. The book as well as donations collected at the store will be sent to the United States for victims of Tuesday's disaster in New York and Washington.

DISASTER SEPT. 11, 2001

Banks set to help victims of attack

Banks in Canada are committed to supporting relief efforts following last Tuesday's attacks in the United States, and will be accepting donations to the Canadian Red Cross - U.S.A. Appeal.

The money raised will assist the American Red Cross in its relief efforts. Donations received will also help provide relief and assistance to stranded travellers in Canada.

Donations may be made at any branch of the following financial institutions up until Oct. 15: Bank of Montreal, Bank of Nova Scotia, CIBC, National Bank of Canada, Royal Bank and TD Bank Financial Group. Donations of goods will not be accepted.