

2002.

V3-37

Grandpa & Grandma's Treasures

The above treasures belong to Faye MacDuff. The brown vases are cannon shells from World War 11. The pink pitcher is made of depression glass and has become very popular in recent years. Faye's mother used it about 1930. The needlepoint picture was made by Vivian Burgess of Regina, Sask. The antique platter once belonged to Mrs. Peter Arkell of Teeswater.