

CONTESTANTS IN THE OXFORD COUNTY Dairy Princess competition on October 5 in the Oxford auditorium in Woodstock will be Mary Ann Van Wyk of Curries, Karen Murray of Bennington, Cheryl Anne West of Medina, Ellen Wallace of Ingersoll and (missing from picture) Donna King of Woodstock.

WESTERN ONTARIO FARMER, Thursday, September 28, 1978 -

Oxford to choose dairy princess

MaryAnn Van Wyk

Five young women are competing for the honor of representing Oxford County milk producers as dairy princess of the county.

The winner will be announced at the Dairy Princess Ball to be held next Thursday, October 5, at the Oxford Auditorium in Woodstock.

The contestant will deliver their qualifying speeches at 8.30 prior to the dance which begins at nine o'clock to the music of Walter Ostenak. The contestants are:

Ellen Wallace

Donna King, 18, from Hickson, a grade 13 student at Huron Park Secondary School, Woodstock.

Mary Ann Van Wyk, 20, of Woodstock, employed at Canada Permanent in Woodstock.

Karen Murray, 17, Embro, in Grade 12 at Ingersoll District Collegiate Institute.

Cheryl Anne West, 18, from Median, employed at

Donna King

United Co-operative, Medina.

Ellen Wallace, 18, from Ingersoll, a grade 13 student at Ingersoll District Collegiate Institute.

All contestants are required to be from a dairy farm background and to be conversant with dairying. The winner will represent Oxford County at the competition for Ontario dairy princess to be held at the C.N.E. in Toronto next August.

Cheryl Anne West

Karen Murray