

St. Marys Fair - '71 Model

A GENERAL VIEW OF THE FLATS FROM ACROSS TROUT CREEK. Comments on the use of the Flats for the fair were without exception "good".

WATCHING A HORSE SHOW — a popular pastime at the recent fair. Facilities on the Flats, along with the pleasant surroundings, added much to the success of the 1971 St. Marys Fair.

—THAT the cucumber harvest is in full swing. The rather back-breaking chore of picking has been greatly helped, at least along one patch on the 8th concession of East Nissouri by a self-propelled machine carrying six youngsters abreast, picking three rows at a time. The machine is powered by a small gasoline engine.

Barber: Son, how would you like your hair cut?

Small boy: Just like my Dad's — and be sure to leave the round hole on top where his head comes through!
