BROWNS WI

WI enjoy cooking demonstration

Browns Womens Institute meeting was held on Tuesday, February 20 at 10 a.m. in the School. The President Janet Uren presided and read a poem "February."

Some of the members had their "Grandma's Legacy" on display, which was very interesting.

The Oxford District spring Board meeting will be held on Monday, March 26 at 6:30 p.m. at Springford. Lunch will be served, cost $3.

There is to be an Oxford Children's Ground Water Festival to be held at Pittock Lake from May 26 to June 1, time 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Volunteers are needed for this program. The children will be bused in from the schools in Oxford County.

The Associated Country Women of the World Conference is being held in Hamilton from June 10 - 15. On June 13 a bus is leaving Embro at 6:30 a.m. Cost $85, lunch included.

Margaret Lee from Springford was our guest and brought greetings from the District.

Evelyn Arthur of the Agriculture and Canadian Industries group presided for the program. She read several humorous baking tips such as a pinch of this or a smidgen of that. She also had a very humorous reading entitled "The Exercise Diary."

Margaret Arthur read two poems "In Praise of the Farmer, Who is a Little Bit of Everything," and gave eight food facts.

Sue Day demonstrated making a cake with a cake mix and several different vegetables and cooked on top of the stove. She also demonstrated her new Food processor and what it would do, making the cake and cabbage salad, which we had for lunch with meat loaf, rolls and chili sauce.

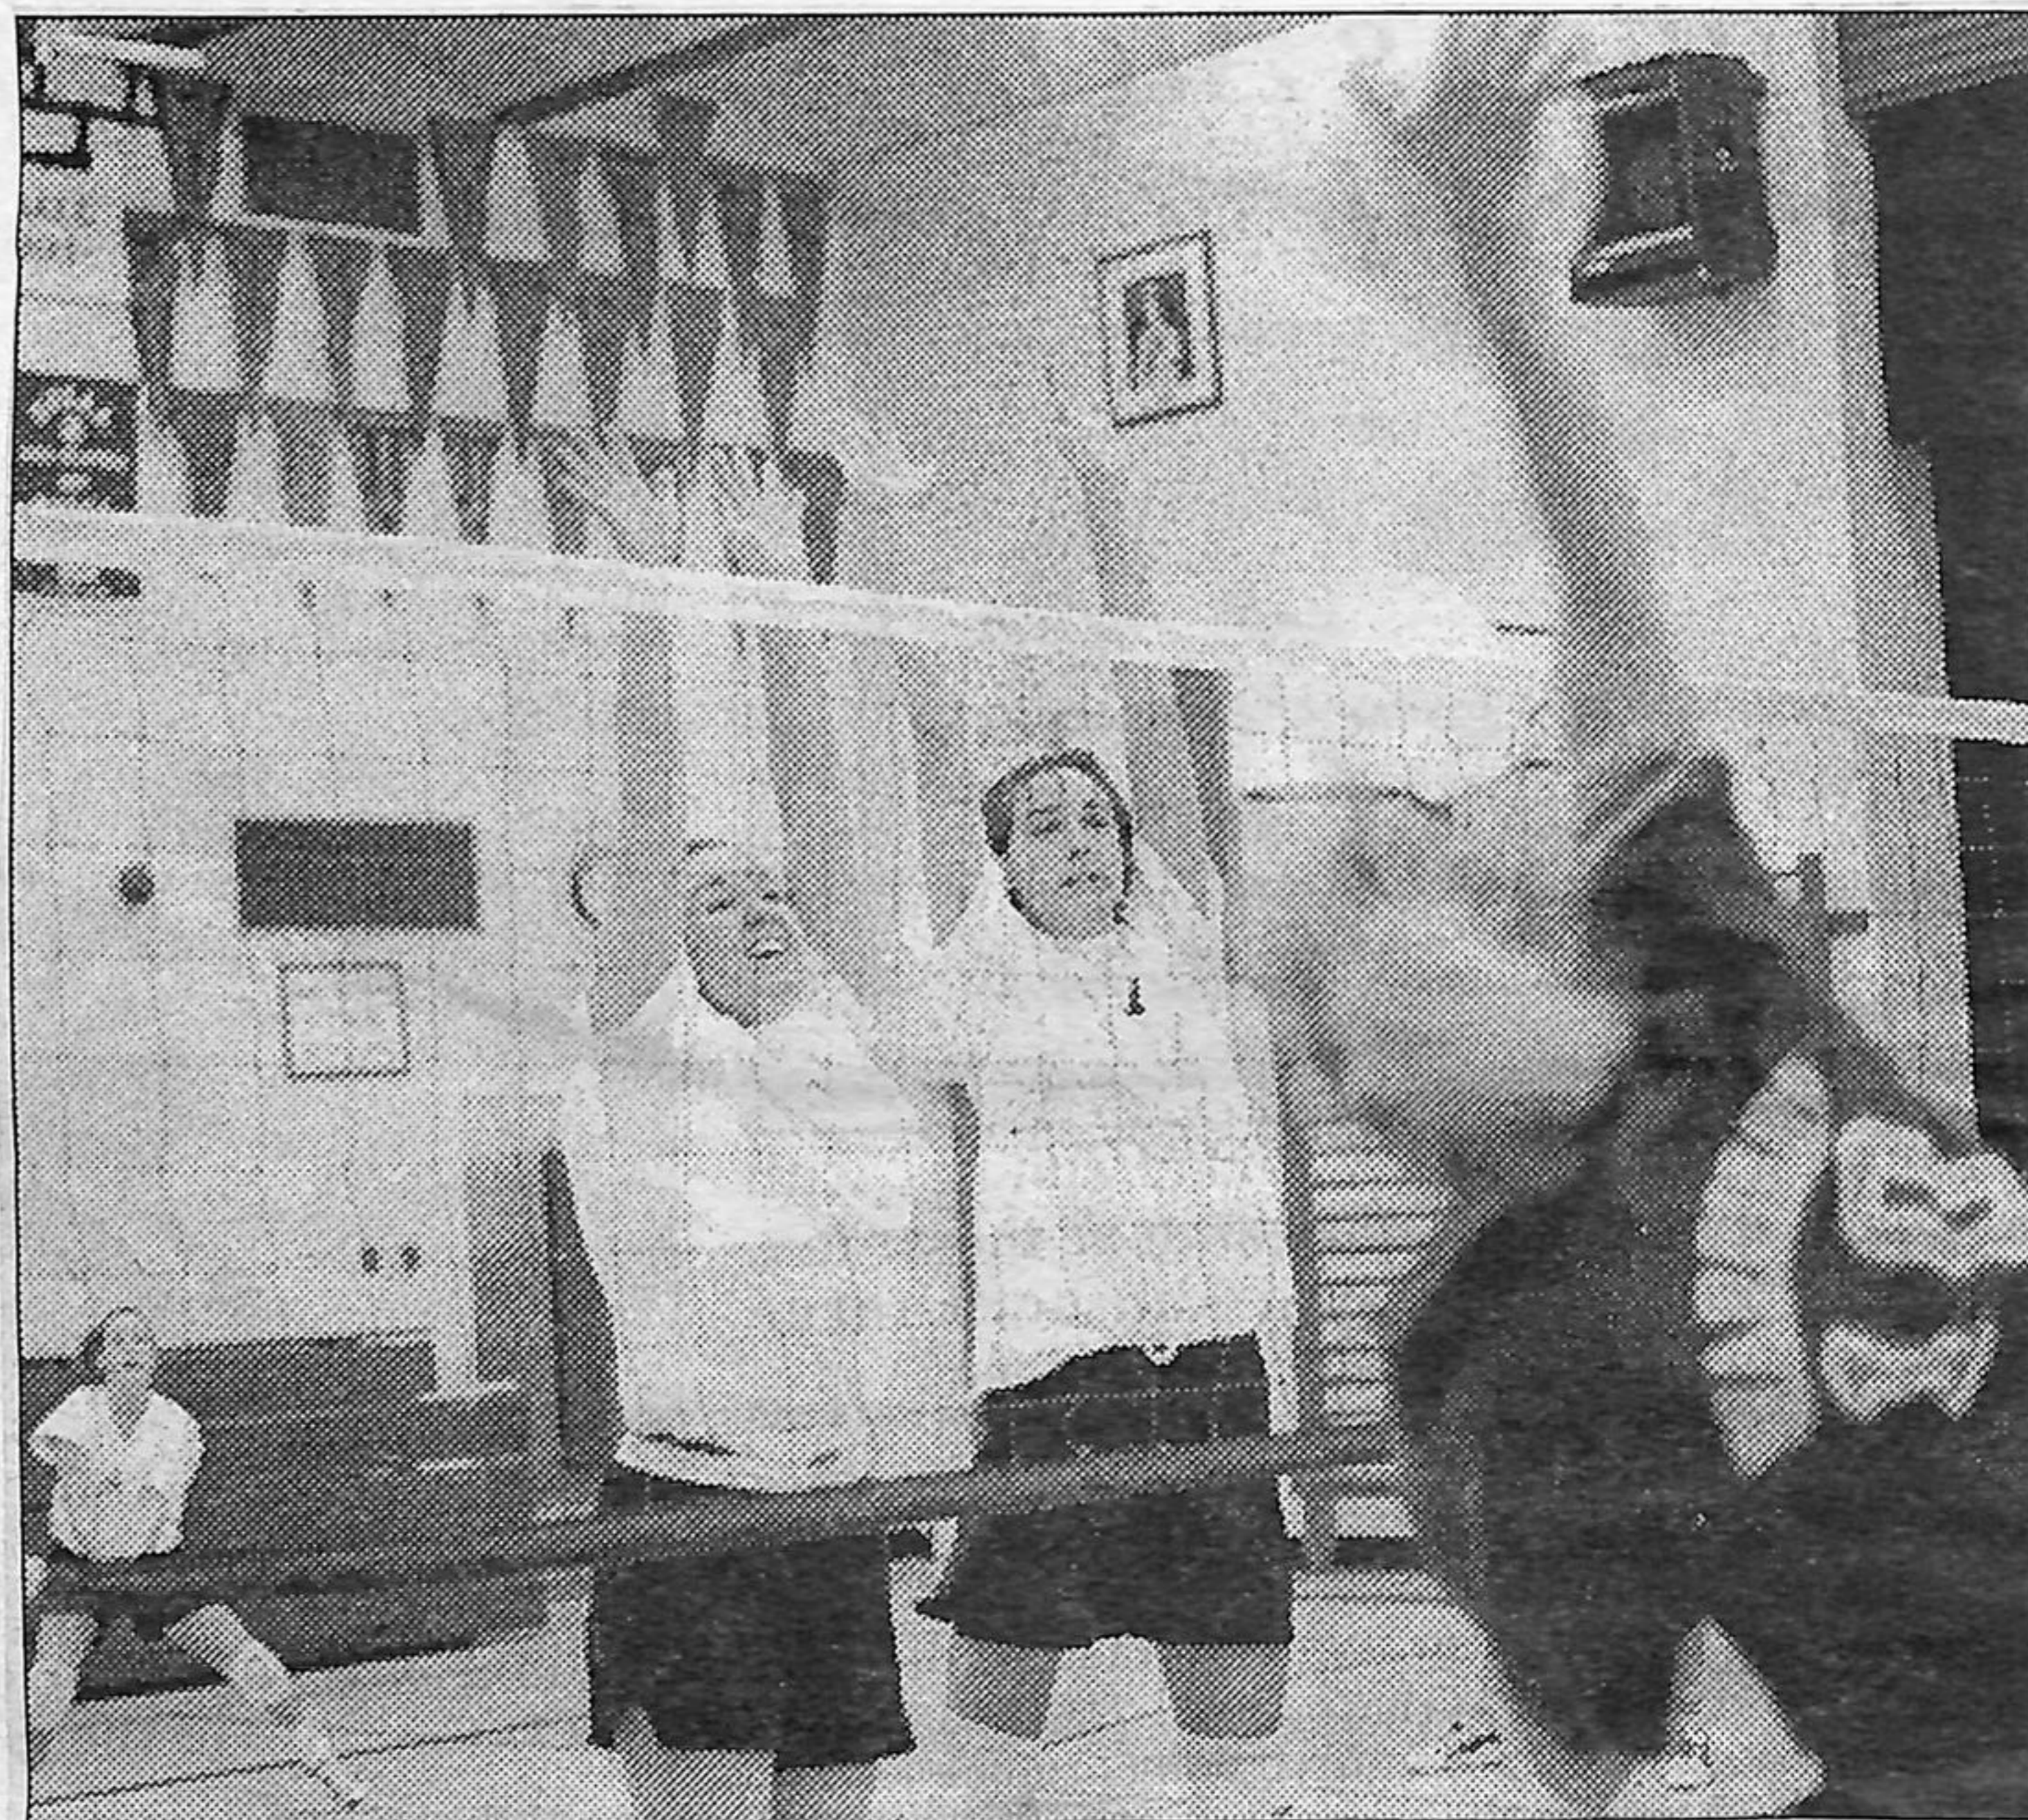

The Roll Call "What do you prepare for unexpected company?" Please bring the recipe. Pennies for Friendship was 5¢ for each letter in the title of your recipe. Evelyn had another reading "Grandmother's Apron."

Janet closed with a reading "Advertisement of W.I." A contest "What's Cooking" was won by Janet Uren. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, March 20 at 10 a.m. Please note change of day to Monday instead of Tuesday.

Browns euchre
