BROWNS WI

Queen and Queen Mum are W.I. members!

Browns W.I. met at the schoolhouse on Wednesday, February 20. Co-president Carol Miller welcomed everyone and read a newspaper article about the Queen and Queen Mother attending the annual meeting of their branch of the W.I. at Sandringham, in the U.K.

After the business meeting, Evelyn Douglas, convener of the Education and Cultural Activities Group, welcomed members and guests. Janet Uren opened with two entertaining readings and then introduced the speaker, Carol Bossenberry, a public health nurse, from Woodstock Health Unit, who gave us all food for thought in an excellent presentation on osteoporosis.

A delicious lunch was enjoyed by all, and gave us time for more questions for Carol.
