

St. Marys Agricultural Fair results 2002

Hocking, 3rd - Lois Bragg.

Seniors 60 and over

40. Tote Bag: 1st - Donna Knowles.

*41. Pillow case embroidered: 1st - Susan Towle, 2nd - A.M. Stephens, 3rd - D. Hocking.

42. Crocheted edging on an article: 1st - D. Hocking, 2nd - R. Squire, 3rd - A.M. Stephens

*43. Tatted edging: 1st - Susan Towle.

Two vie for Fair Queen 2002

Erica Levy

Name: Erica Levy

Parents: Ken and Barb Levy

School: St. Marys DCVI

Hobbies: Showing horses at the Regional and Provincial level.

Future Goals: To attend the University of Guelph and become the Ontario Minister of Agriculture

Sponsor: St. Marys Ford

Heather West

Name: Heather West
Parents: Victor and Nancy West

School: St. Marys DCVI

Hobbies: Music, plays the violin; chorister with St. Marys Children's Choir; member of the St. Marys DCVI Band; St. Marys Presbyterian Church Choir; and the Bells of St. Marys hand bell choir.

Future Goals: Plans to attend university to pursue a career in teaching music and French.

Sponsor: Browns Women's Institute

Three contestants entered the St. Marys Fair Ambassador contest 2002. The new ambassador, Erica Levy, was crowned during the Fair's opening ceremonies Friday evening. From left are Kaylin Heath, Heather West, Levy, and last year's ambassador Rebecca Coddington.