BROWNS WI

Uniondale firefighters were guest speakers

Browns Womens Institute was held on Wednesday, November 20 in the School at 7 p.m. Carol Miller the co-president presided and welcomed everyone.

The meeting was planned by the Education Leadership Development Group.

Sue Day presided and read a poem 'Volunteer Blessing' and Evelyn

Arthur had a reading 'What are Volunteers.' Kay Conn had a humorous reading 'Fire Truck Without Brakes.'

Our guests were Ron Greason, Fire Chief of the Uniondale Volunteer Fire Department and Ron King one of the Captains. There are sixteen members and all are trained in First Aid. Many of their calls are to vehicle accidents and not fires. They outlined the boundaries of their department and how they can help neighbouring departments. The equipment is always being updated.

The Roll Call "A Fire Safety Hint" and the members covered most of them.

Ron King had a display and for sale of pewter pins and tree ornaments for Muscular Dystrophy. The Fire Department gives $1,000 to the organization. The Institute voted to give $50.

Carol presided for the business. Liz Harrison gave a very good report from London Area, held in Shedden. Next year it will be held in Embro at the Community Centre.

The Christmas meeting will be on December 11 at 12 o'clock at Eagleview B&B in St. Marys Ladies are asked to bring articles for the Women's Emergency Centre in Woodstock.

The Institute will donate money to buy a bundle of shingles for the new roof of Erland Lee Home.
