BROWNS WI

Christmas meeting enjoyed at Eagleview

Browns Women's Institute held their Christmas meeting at Eagleview, the home of Bob and Pat Young on Wednesday December 11 at 12 noon.

Sheila Greason presided and read several Christmas readings and jokes. She introduced Linda Clendinning from Thorndale, who played the piano for the singing of Christmas carols. Linda also sang several solos, which was much enjoyed. A delicious lunch was served by Pat.

The Young home was beautifully decorated for Christmas and we were given a tour of the home. Pat also told us how they bought the house and now have a very successful Bed and Breakfast business.

The Roll Call was articles for the Emergency Shelter in Woodstock and Evelyn Douglas was delivering them.

The next meeting will be on January 15, 2003 at 10 a.m. in the school.

Euchre Party

The regular Euchre Party of Browns Women's Institute was held on Thursday December 12 in the School at 8 o'clock. The winners were as follows - ladies high Evelyn Arthur, lone hands Jean Sims and low Mildred Newman. The men's high Gordon Smith, lone hands Alex Jeffrey and low Jim Kennedy. The door prize winners were Bell Oliver and Doug Kennedy.

The members of the Institute wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and will see you on January 9 at 8 o'clock.

A Life membership was presented to Susan Towle in recognition of her many years of dedicated service to the St. Marys Horticultural Society by President Bruce Barnes at the December 4 year-end meeting.
