

Speaker talks about support for Arthritis sufferers

A Browns Women's Institute meeting was held March 19 in Browns School at 10 a.m. Co-president Carol Miller presided and welcomed everyone then asked Evelyn Douglas to preside for the program.

She gave a reading "St. Patrick's Day," then introduced speaker Sharon Cummons from London.

Her topic "The Arthritis Clinic." She talked on what the Arthritis Society will do for people with arthritis. There are also many assistive devices to make life easier for them. The Society will make house calls to assess people.

There is a clinic in St. Marys Memorial Hospital, where people afflicted with it can go and learn more about arthritis, because there is no cure.

Janet Uren thanked Sharon and presented her with a gift.

Evelyn read a poem "An Irish Blessing." The roll call was

"Name a joint that can be affected by Arthritis." Pennies for Friendship was 25 cents for every time you exercised in a week. The business was conducted by Carol Miller.

'Day Away' April 12

She reminded the group of the 'Day Away' being held in Dundas United Church, Woodstock April 8 at 9:30 a.m.

With the sanction of Browns United Church, the Institute will remove the old shrubs on either side of the School and replace them with new plantings. A committee of Evelyn Arthur, Carol Miller and Evelyn Douglas will look after this project.

A letter from St. Marys Fair asking for candidates for the Ambassador contest for the Fair was read.

The next meeting will be the Annual Meeting on April 9 at 10 a.m. with a Pot Luck dinner.

The three stars. Kristin DeBrabandere, left, goalkeeper Stephanie Miletic and Erin Miller got the nod as the game's three stars against Central. DeBrabandere was a two-way standout, Miletic made several outstanding saves, and Miller booted the game's only goal.

Oxford North W.I. held their Day Away on Tuesday with a very good turnout. The first event was a presentation on refinishing furniture by Mrs. Newman. Her husband sold the pieces she had planned to bring as examples, but they soon got some more ready.

After lunch we exercised with Beth Munro from the VON and had a pep talk on the value of exercising regularly, to keep fit and active. Workshops in the afternoon were scrapbooking and making a Patio Lantern.

Oxford Presbytery

Oxford Presbytery met Wednesday evening in the Plattsville United Church. Licenses were renewed for a long list of Lay Preachers including John Hiuser. A full slate of officers for the coming year was presented by Celia Orth.

A bus is being chartered to take delegates to the Conference Annual Meeting in Sault St. Marie in May. There is extra room at the present time, so people from other Presbyteries would be very welcome. Call Vi Sackrider at 424-2773 for information.
