

Roll into the 156th St. Marys Fair

By Sheila Greason
SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL ARGUS

HEATHER WEST

Heather West is the daughter of Victor and Nancy West of RR#1 Lakeside. The 19 year old is a graduate of St. Marys DCVI.

Her favourite pastimes are reading, gardening, creating art, web page design and creation, and listening to all kinds of music. A talented musician and singer, Heather plays the violin, flute, oboe, hand bells, xylophone, and sings in several choirs including the Festival Youth Singers of Stratford and the St. Marys Presbyterian Church choir. She also teaches violin lessons.

Heather enjoys volunteering with the St. Marys Children's Choir, as a soccer coach and at local blood donor clinics handing out cookies and juice.

Heather plans to attend university for Voice and Violin Performance in hopes of launching a performing career and earning a degree that will allow her to become a secondary school music teacher.

Heather West is sponsored by Browns Women's Institute.

The four young ladies competing for 2003 Fair Ambassador title toured the dairy farm of Joe and Mary Reynen recently. The competition takes place Thursday evening with the winner being announced at the opening ceremonies which follow the parade on Friday. From left, Alaina Fawcett, Krystal Gowan, 2002 Fair Ambassador Erica Levy, Katlynn Schellenberger and Heather West.

BROWNS WI

First euchre of the fall season

Browns Women's Institute held their first euchre of the fall season on Thursday, September 4, in the School house. The winners were as follows: ladies high - Donna

Jeffrey, men's high Terry Barber; lone hands Bell Oliver; men's lone hands Doug Kennedy; low ladies Kathy Jeffrey and low men's George McLellan. Lucky draws ladies Mildred Newman and men's Larry McLellan.

The next euchre will be on Thursday, September 18 at 8 o'clock in the schoolhouse.

At the Browns W. I. meeting on Tuesday, September 16 our guest speaker talked about Foot Care. Everyone present got their tootsies manicured.

St. Marys Children's Choir volunteers made 1,500 apple pies on the weekend.

1,500 apple pies were prepared Saturday at the hall in St. Pauls. Helping out were, from left: Shelagh O'Neill, Taylor Triemstra and Kate Mountain.

Joyce's Granddaughter (West)

Browns Euchre
The regular Euchre of Browns W.I. was held on Thursday, October 16 at 8 p.m. The winners were as follows: high lady Connie Kittmer, lone hands Mildred Newman, and low Audrey Somers. High man was George McLellan; lone hands Doug Kennedy and low Jim Kennedy. Door prize winners were Jean Sims and David Arthur.
The next euchre will be on Thursday, October 30 at 8 p.m.