

Gardens Galore enjoys good harvest of vegetables

The vegetable garden at the cemetery, a project of the St. Marys Agricultural Society and the St. Marys Horticultural Society, was harvested on Saturday with the help of several youngsters. Front row from left, are: Sally Sauve, Samantha Kerekes, Brittanie McLeod, Deanne Kerekes, Zachary Coulson, Allie Alderson Cam Gwynn, Hannah Gwynn and Kodiak Gwynn. In the back are the 'Gardens Galore' project co-coordinators Sheila Greason, Nettie Hoyles and Chris Redfern.

BROWNS WI

Euchre luncheon November 13

Browns Women's Institute met October 19 at Browns School with a good attendance. Reports from Fall Board and London Area Convention were given. It was decided to have the Tweedsmuir histories microfilmed.

The meeting was organized by the Education and Leadership Development Group. Roll call was an event that happened during the year you started school.

Members sat on chairs arranged in rows and Willie Vanstrein acted as the 'supply teacher.' The day began with God Save the Queen. Kay Conn had a poem called 'The Lesson.' Dianne Greason was the winner of the spelling bee and Evelyn Douglas won the memory work contest. The song School Days was sung. Evelyn Arthur read a poem called 'Education.' Willie Vanstrein told about schools in Holland when she attended.

Plans were completed for the euchre luncheon on November 13. Tickets are available from Evelyn Douglas 349-2282 or Sheila Greason 349-2768.

Euchre Thursday

Browns W.I. Euchre Party was held October 14. The winners were high lady Connie Kittmer and high man George McLellan. Lone hands for the ladies Noreen Switzer and the men Terry Barber; low lady Audrey McLellan and the men Mildred Newman.

The door prize winners were Audrey Somers and Andy Kittner.

The next euchre is Thursday, October 28 at 8 p.m.

Volunteers build communities

Ontario Volunteer Awards

Les bénévoles, le cœur de nos collectivités

Distinctions de l'Ontario pour bénévoles

Irene Richardson was nominated for a VON Ontario Volunteer Award by Brown's WI. She received her award on September 30 at the London Convention Centre.

'Away for a Day' Nov. 16

Oxford District Women's Institute "Away for a Day" Educational Seminar 2004 will be held Tuesday, November 16, at Dundas Street United Church in Woodstock.

The morning starts at 9:30 a.m. with snacks and registration. First event is Janice Sloat from the Oxford County Board of Health on Heart Healthy Eating.

Two workshops follow, Bras with Frances Rutherford and Foot Care/Satin Hands with Cherie McDonald and Tine Clarebout. Soup and Sandwich lunch is available at noon.

Afternoon starting at 1:15 p.m. two workshops Huck Weaving with Evelyn Arthur and Marg Ogar, or Festive Baking with Dianne Weeks. Babysitting is available if requested.

Euchre lunch

THAT the Browns Women's Institute is hosting a euchre luncheon on Saturday, November 13 at 12 noon at the Browns School. Tickets are available from Evelyn Douglas 349-2282 or Sheila Greason 349-2768.