

The faces behind the "Spring into Fashion" show

The St. Marys Memorial Hospital Auxiliary held its second annual "Spring into Fashion" show on March 28 at the St. Marys Golf and Country club. The event featured clothes and accessories from several local merchants. Here, the auxiliary ladies behind the scenes are, in front, Joanne Winchester, in second row from left, Brenda Mitchell, Marg Edgar, Irene Wortley, president of the auxiliary, Vi Corbett and Sophie Bradley. In the third row from left, Kay Conn and Joanne Pickering and in the back from left, HPHA CEO Andrew Williams, who also modeled during the show, Lita Miandro and Pat Hill. Also during the show, the auxiliary held a flower auction which raised $132.

Ag Society celebrates decades of fair fun

The ladies of the St. Marys Agricultural Society got dolled up in decades of dress to kick off the St. Marys Fair's 160th anniversary at the Family Variety Night on Friday, March 2 at the Legion. The Society would like to remind everyone that the fair takes place July 26 to 29 at the Pyramid Centre. This year's theme is celebrating the fair's 160th anniversary, and it will be carried through all of the events, displays and contests at the fair. Front row from left are Marg Spearin, Betty Hepburn and Robyn Glaab. Back row from left are Evelyn King, June Gevaert, Pat Gregory, Ruth Ridley, Dianne Dawson, Agnes Schellenberger, Linda Coddington, Marilynne McDonald and Sheila Greason.
