

Browns WI

The Browns WI met on September 18. President Evelyn Douglas opened the meeting with a poem. The minutes, treasurer's report, euchre report and Tweedsmuir curator's report were given. Delegates for Fall Board and London Area Convention were selected. It was decided to make a donation to the Harrigan family in the loss of their home.

Members are reminded to bring their homemade preserves to the October meeting for the Euchre Luncheon door prize. Evelyn Douglas, Liz Harrison and Sheila Greason reported on the WI display at the Outdoor Farm Show. The program had been organized by Liz Harrison and her group. The speaker was Janice Sloat, a dietician with the Oxford County Health Unit. Janice spoke about Canada's new Food Guide. She distributed menu, food and activity planners. Janice was thanked by Irene Richardson.

The WI and Browns UCW signs have been freshened up, thanks to Karen Richardson.

Brown's WI Euchre

Brown's Women's Institute Euchre was Thursday evening at Brown's School. The winners are as follows: Men's High - Earnest Oliver; Men's Low - Andy Kittmer; Men's Lone Hand - John MacDonald. Lady's High - Jean Sims, Lady's Low - Norine Switzer; Lady's Lone Hand - Irene Felkar. Door Prize - Allan Sims.

The euchre luncheon will be November 3 at noon at the Brown's School. The proceeds will go to Brown's WI, and the balance to the "Grannys to Grannys" project through the Stephen Lewis Foundation.

Oxford District WI

The Oxford District WI fall board meeting was held at the Mt. Elgin Community Hall. President Carol Innes welcomed everyone and told about helping Patty Pizziola, ROSE program manager, get enough people to help at the WI area at the Outdoor Farm Show. Nancy Muir of the Lakeside Branch had an interesting experience when she asked an elderly man if he was familiar with the Women's Institute. "Sure am," he said, "my grandmother was a sister of Adelaide Hoodless".

It was Grandparents Day at the Friendship Centre on Thursday and Grandma Evelyn Douglas (rear left) was accompanied by grandchildren Jacob (7) (left) and Emmah Douglas (4) for the event. Also pictured is "great aunt" Renny Knobe. The event which is becoming an annual event is sponsored by Home Support.

It is a sure sign of fall when the Brown's Women's Institute start up their fall euchre series. It did start last Thursday evening and the winners are as follows: lady's high - Noreen Switzer; lady's low - Irene Felkar and lady's lone hands - Doris Champion. Men's high - Allen Sims; men's low - Ken Day; men's lone hands - Earnest Oliver; and door prize - Bell Oliver.

Browns Women's Institute held their euchre Thursday, Oct. 11, with the following winners. Lady's high - Irene Felkar, lady's low - Bell Oliver and lady's lone hands - Norine Switzer. Men's high - John MacDonald, men's low - Carol Herbert (playing as a man) and men's lone hands - Earnest Oliver. Door Prize by Sharon Rounds. Next Euchre evening will be Oct. 25.

Lakeside Bible Society

The annual meeting of the Lakeside Bible Society was held September 27 with the following present: Rev. Wib Dawson, director of the Western Ontario Bible Society, Pastor Richard Hryniw; President Sheila Greason; Secretary Dianne Greason and Ruth Rout.

The Canadian Bible Society translates, publishes, and distributes the Bible in 134 languages. Also available are large print, braille, and free tapes to the Canadian Armed forces, classrooms, and prisons. Churches destroyed by fire are