

Women's Institute members gather in Kirkton

It's three years in a row for the St. Marys LCBO as once more they are the winners in their district for donations received for the United Way campaign. With the award are staff members (from left) Lisa Petrie, Louise Sterkenburg, manager Ron Ashbourne and Carol Miller. Ron said that the staff would like to thank the generosity of all the customers and said that the campaign will last until the end of the month. Absent from the picture was Catherine Glanville.
