

A memorable service

Palm Sunday was observed by the congregations of North Nissouri, Browns, Christ Church and Union Church participating in a travelling service. The first stop was Christ Church, Lakeside for refreshments, the parade of and blessing of the palms, a musical presentation by the Sunday School and the distribution of palms.

The next stop was Union Church, where the extinguishing of the candles, readings and hymns took place. Then the group travelled to Browns Church, where an anthem was presented by Browns choir, accompanied by Jane Rolston. The sacrament of Holy Communion was observed. The palm crosses were blessed and distributed by the children.

A delicious lunch and time of fellowship brought a memorable church service to a close. Those taking part were: Pastors Richard Hryniw and Irene Richardson, Joan Hryniw, Monica Kelly, Stewart Slater, Allan Slater, Debbie Graham, Ruth Bradley and Lynn Rysnick.

Beautiful flowers had been placed in the Union Church in loving memory of Margaret Black by her family. A Good Friday service will be held at the Union Church on Apr. 10 at 5:30 p.m.

The winner of the Browns WI Euchre on Thursday, Apr. 9 are as follows: Ladies' High, Irene Felkar; Ladies Lone Hands, Jean Sims; Ladies' Low, Donna Ferreira; Ladies' Door Prize, Noreen Switzer; Ladies' Special Prize, Carol Herbert.

Men's High, David Arthur; Men's Lone Hands, Andy Kittmer; Men's Low, George McLellan; Men's Door Prize, Terry Barber; Men's Special Prize, Earnie Oliver. Next Euchre is Thursday, Apr. 23, same place, same time.

Browns WI officers installed

Ruth Skillings
LAKESIDE CORRESPONDENT

The regular and annual meetings of Browns Women's Institute were held at Browns School on April 14 with President Evelyn Douglas in charge.

The 2009-10 officers were installed by Susan Towle. The officers are as follows: past president, Evelyn Douglas; president, Sheila Greason; vice president, Evelyn Arthur; secretary, Dianne Greason; treasurer, Kay Conn; district director, Evelyn Douglas; branch directors, Evelyn Douglas, Liz Harrison, Carol Miller; public relations officer, Sheila Greason; auditors, Liz Harrison, Carol Miller; program coordinator, Dianne Greason; flower committee, Betty Barons, Judy Taylor; pianist, Carol Miller.

Evelyn Douglas was presented with her past president's pin by Sheila Greason and thanked for her service to the Browns branch.

The winners from May 7 Browns Women's Institute Euchre held at Browns School were: Ladies' High - Doris Champion; Ladies' Lone Hand - Norene Switzer; Ladies' Low - June Hubbard; Ladies' Door Prize - Aileen Fairhall.

Men's High - Terry Barber; Men's Lone Hands - Earnie Oliver; Men's Low - Bell Oliver (playing as a man); Men's Door Prize - Bruce Cole. Be ready for the next evening Thursday, May 21. Remember if you want to play in June, let the ladies know.

HAPPY 90TH BIRTHDAY
George Heron

SATURDAY, APRIL 11

Have a great day!
Lots of love Dad / Pop
Shirley & Bill, Linda & Terry
Nancy & John & families

Browns euchres to continue

Ruth Skillings
LAKESIDE CORRESPONDENT

Good news for all those euchre enthusiasts who attend the regular Euchre Night at Browns School House: Browns Women's Institute members have decided to continue regular euchres in all of May. If at that time there is still considerable interest they will continue them on into June. So folks it is up to you, if you come there will be euchre for two months yet!

Two windfalls for Browns euchres

The Browns Women's Institute sponsored its 30th charity euchre luncheon Apr. 18 at Browns School.

The proceeds were divided evenly between the Canadian Cancer Society and the Gastrointestinal Stromal Tumor Support Group.

Winners of the door prizes donated by the charities were Evelyn Haves and Reta Armstrong.

Winners of the euchre prizes were as follows: ladies' high, Helen Holden; ladies' lone hands, Helen Hartwick; men's high, Warren Beavers; and men's lone hands, Don Rigney.

Winners of the door prizes donated by the members of Browns WI were Jean Houghton, Bob Hope, Jean Beavers, Ken Day, Joyce West, Aileen Fairhall, Sue Treanor, Reta Hughes, Reg Harris, Earnest Oliver, Carol Herbert, Edna Febrey, Ken Jeffrey, Vivian McDonald, Cora Mitchell, Gladys O'Neil, George Oliver and David Arthur.

Thank you to the community for supporting the charity euchre luncheon.

Browns WI representative Sheila Greason (centre) with Liz Harrison, (left) representing the Gastrointestinal Stromal Tumor Support Group and Sharyn Fisher (right) representing the Northwestern Oxford branch of the Canadian Cancer Society. (Macko photo)