

Wildwood students run for Terry

WILDWOOD STUDENTS HAND OVER $1,127 earned from their Terry Fox Run this fall. Accepting the contribution are, from left: Northwestern branch of the Oxford County Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society's Carolyn Burnett, secretary and bike ride convener; and president Pat Kelly. Holding a mock cheque, as the school's approximately 100 students look on, are Grade 3 students Ann-Marie West and Jason Cater. Students in the kindergarten to Grade 3 school ran laps every day for a week and solicited pledges to raise their contribution. Together with their sister school, A. J. Baker, they raised $2,714, for a total of $10,472 over the last 10 years.

Brown's Women's Institute

Brown's Women's Institute held its first euchre party of the season a week ago last Thursday, with people at 11 tables playing cards. Prize winners were: high - Jean Robinson and Grant Johnson; lone hands - Evelyn Haves and Bert Butcher; low - Agnes Fitzsimmons and Bob Burgess; lucky draw - Betty Johnson and Terry Barber. The West family held a family dinner at Brown's School recently.

November 13.

Janet Uren, Jeffrey and Jason and Sue Davis brought the Kids on the Block puppets to Union Church Sunday school on Nov. 16 and presented a puppet show about understanding and acceptance of handicapped people. They were thanked by Deanne Adams.

also at Browns.

Brown's UCW Nov. 11

The November meeting of Brown's UCW was held at Brown's School with 17 members attending.

President Mrs. George Towle opened the meeting with Meditation on Armistice Day, followed by prayer. Gospel and the Flag was also given.

Mrs. John Hawkesworth read the minutes and correspondence. A donation to Five Oaks, John Milton Society, Drug and Alcohol Concern was approved.

The treasurer's report and the bazaar report was presented by Mrs. Dave Arthur.

The roll call was answered by donating canned food for the Salvation Army.

Two minutes of silence was observed by the members. The president read a poem - In Flanders Fields.

Mrs. John Conway has been appointed regional vice-president of United Church Women.

Mrs. Hubert Uren, convener of the Christian development group, opened the service - Meditation on Worship - and read the scripture, followed by prayer.

Mrs. John Conway and Mrs. Clarence Tate sang a duet, Stranger of Galilee. The convener read The Day of the Crucifixion.

Mrs. George Towle showed slides of a trip. Mrs. Uren thanked her. Joyce Burgess, convener of church in society, made the courtesy remarks.

The U.C.W. and W.I. noon luncheon will be held Dec. 2. Everyone is to bring a gift and penny jars.

The World Outreach group served lunch

Brown's WI involved in playground purchase plans

Education was the topic of discussion at the Nov. 18 meeting of Brown's Women's Institute.

President Margaret Arthur welcomed everyone. Mrs. Arthur read The Ten Carat Years. Secretary Janet Uren read the minutes of the last meeting.

The following decisions were made during the business period. Evelyn Arthur will attend a meeting to discuss the proposed purchase of new school playground equipment for Wildwood and A. J. Baker schools.

A one-day session for the short order meals course will be held on Dec. 4 at Brown's School commencing at 10 a.m. Participants are asked to bring a quick dish for a potluck luncheon. The summary night for this course will be held Dec. 8 in Woodstock.

Brown's W.I. will cater the meal for the Wellburn W.I. Christmas party on Dec. 5.

Treasurer Liz Harrison has W.I. badges for sale.

Margaret Arthur reported on the Oxford County Conference which she attended with Joyce Burgess and Evelyn Arthur.

Willy Vanstrien convened the education program and read a poem -

It's That Time of Year. The roll call, a favourite school game, was answered with games such as hop scotch, flying dutchman, tag and basketball. Members were asked to bring their school pictures.

Janet Uren introduced the guest speaker, Kay Ross, Oxford North District president, who spoke about the Ross Butler Project. This project is jointly sponsored by the women's institutes of Oxford South District and Oxford North District.

The purpose is to have the pictures by Oxford County native Ross Butler, depicting dairy and beef cattle and horses and current pictures of breeds, distributed to every school in Ontario. Financial support is most welcome in order to help put this resource packet of livestock pictures and information in the hands of teachers and students in the near future.

Mrs. Ross was thanked by Evelyn Arthur and presented with a gift of cheese. Barbara Brocklebank concluded the program with an article about education.

Courtesy remarks were given and everyone was invited to the noon Christmas luncheon on Dec. 2.

November 18, 1986