

December 11, 1985

Lee Ann Wright is a grand-daughter of Betty Barons (Medina)

HEATHER JEWSON, second from left, and Stephanie Rozek hold candles as they share a few solemn moments with fellow guides Michelle Broome, left, and Lee Ann Wright during their enrollment into the Fourth St. Marys Guide Company Dec. 5.

Brown's

The second candle of advent was lit by Robin and Paula McKay, at Brown's Corners. The first candle was lit by Pauline and Carol Ann Distler.

The third Women's Institute euchre of the season was held on Thursday night with a good crowd. Prize winners were: high score - Betty Johnson and Dan Kittmer; lone hands - Marquerite Jensen and Reg Harris; low score - Mary Monteith and Fred Arthur; luck cup prize - Oren Bayne.

The next euchre will be on Dec. 19.

The community extends sympathy to the family of Murray Webb, who died recently.

Brown's Corners

Brown's W.I. held its last euchre for 1985 last Thursday night, with four tables in play.

Prize winners were: high p Vi Pridham and Mel Monteith; lone hands - Anna Armstrong and Terry Barber; low - Verna Switzer and Doug Kennedy.

The next euchre will be on Jan. 2.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from your Brown's correspondent.

Eight newly-weds get honoured at Brown's

The Brown's community gathered at the school on Friday night to honour four young area couples on their recent marriages.

George Towle was chairman for a variety program.

John Hawkesworth and Annie Uren got everyone involved in an old-fashioned sing-song, followed by a piano solo by Jeffrey Uren.

Murray Kingdon expressed best wishes to the couples and welcomed the new brides to the community.

Dorothy Taylor gave a reading and Brian and Bob Conway, a musical selection.

Donna McKay and the minister, Jean Baker, both gave short speeches, as well as Murray Taylor.

John Uren sang and played the guitar, and Marion Harris, gave a reading.

Kevin McMurray read the address for Carling and Meleane

West and Melissa Hopkins presented them with a gift.

Roger McKay read the address for David and Jennie Switzer and Sue Ellen Hopkins presented them with their gift, and Monty West read the address for Alex and Elaine Gregory, and Jeffrey Uren presented them with their gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris King were unable to be present, but will also receive a gift.

An enjoyable social hour concluded the evening.

Sunday was White Gift Sunday, at Brown's with several boys and girls of the Sunday school taking part in the service.

A cheery hello to Mervin Beavers who has been a hospital patient for the past few weeks.

Brown's UCW and Institute has luncheon

The Brown's UCW and Institute held a December luncheon at Brown's School.

Mrs. Murray Kingdon announced Santa's arrival with gifts for the children.

Secret pal gifts were exchanged.

President Mrs. Murray Taylor opened the institute meeting with Christmas carols led by Mrs. Clarence Tate.

A Skit, entitled Gifts Come Down From Christmas, was performed.

Mrs. John Hawkesworth read The Dove, Gift of Peace, followed by If I had the Wings of a Dove. Mrs. Gert Metcalfe read Gift of a Circle, followed by Circle of Light.

Mrs. Clara Taylor, read Wisdom, A Gift of God, followed by singing Jesus Love Me. Mrs. Murray Kingdon read Gift Represents Candle, The Light of the World. Mrs. John Conway and Mrs. Clarence Tate sang a duet, Gift of Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Dave Arthur read a poem, Three Weeks Before Christmas. Mrs. Murray Taylor closed with prayer.

Mrs. Murray Taylor thanked Joyce West and the group, the church in society and social action, for preparing dinner.

December 11, 1985

December 3, 1985