

ST. MARYS FIGURE SKATING CLUB awards were presented at the club's family skate Saturday. From left are, front row: novice best effort, Alison Grose; senior achievement, Laurel Ready; senior achievement, Colleen Shaughnessy; beginner achievement, Melissa Timmerman; junior best effort, Marianne

Distler; the Cathy Hamilton contribution award, Carolyn Abercrombie. Back row: junior achievement, Erin Arnold; senior best effort, Ellen Douglas; beginner best effort, Richard McLeod; senior best effort, Leanne Hutton.

*Marianne is a daughter of Doreen & Joe Distler
(Journal Argus April 2, 1986)*

Brown's Corners

The community of Brown's Corners was saddened to learn of the death of Wallace Craig at St. Marys Memorial Hospital last week. Sympathy is extended to his wife, Helen, his daughters and son, grandchildren and other relatives.

Congratulations are extended to Jeffrey Uren who presented a speech at the district level of the Optimist oratorical contest at J.

B. Lucas secondary school on Saturday. Twelve children competed and each competitor received a trophy and a certificate.

Rev. Roger Rice was the minister at Brown's on Sunday and Jean Baker was at Thorndale.

Lunch was served following the service and a meeting to discuss the annual chicken barbecue took place.

Journal Argus April 9, 1986