

A.J. Baker runs for Terry

TEACHER RICK ESSELTINE punches the students' lap cards as they make their rounds during the 5th annual Terry Fox run for cancer research last week at A. J. Baker school.

Kevin Tate, son of Joyce & Clarence, is in the back row.

Brown's Corners

The Brown's Corners community was shocked to learn of the death of Hubert Uren. To his wife Annie and family the community extends sincere sympathy.

Brown's U.C.W. ladies are busily making preparations for the annual bazaar and tea on Oct. 22.

The 4H girls met for their unit Surviving with Style, last Wednesday night, with 10 members taking part. Leaders for this unit are Karen Wakem and Margi Hopkins.

J.A. October 7, 1987

Brown's Corners

The community of Brown's Corners sends get well wishes to Rev. Jean Baker, who was confined to her home last weekend.

In her absence, Rev. Doug Chapman took charge of the Service at all three churches last Sunday.

Brown's Sunday School children were collecting for Unicef during their trick or Treat calls on Sat. night.

November 1, 1987

October 3, 1987

ALICE HAWKESWORTH, LEFT, AND EDYTHE HOWE of St. Marys made these flower decorations for the Ontario Horticultural Association's District 10 annual meeting on Saturday at the high school.