

ities, which should recall struggle and success, give inspiration and break the monotony of school-room days. These were made possible by contributions of friends of our school.

Brownsville has jealously guarded and ever sought the best teachers available. The name of John Edgington for seventeen years principal of our Public School is revered and respected by the boys and girls of past days, now matured men and women of our community. H.C. and Mrs. Branion have an abiding place on memory's page of a younger generation for kindness and efficiency shown while Principal and assistant here for thirteen years. These are mentioned as out-standing in continuous service but they with others not only implanted and instilled knowledge, but sought to blend and harmonize knowledge with service and character, as being the true adornments of worthy citizens.

Who has not heard of "Brownsville's Old Time Garden Parties" which through profits obtained has made it possible for many of the public improvements which we enjoy. Over a mile of cement walks in our little hamlet, an up-to-date library with reading room, 2000 volumes on the shelves, sheltered in a building owned and controlled by our local Library Board, Our streets are electrically lighted and a community park.

Some years ago our Improvement Society purchased three acres of land adjoining the school grounds making five acres beautifully situated and well adapted for Park purposes. Various improvements have been made in the Past, but not until this year has a general clean-up been instituted. We now have an up-to-date (Rural) Base Ball diamond, soft ball diamond, basket ball court and equipment, swings, trapeze and open air skating rink, a permanently constructed tennis court, a booth has also been erected to care for the demands of extra events.

These are some of the improvements in the interior of the Park, but the real beauty of the Park is revealed in its enclosures, which was made possible by the Ladies of our community (Womans' Institute) in the substantial initial contribution made to forward the erection of the Memorial Arch that adorns the entrance to our school. A work of art and beauty revealing the skill and
