

4-H CALF CLUB ACHIEVEMENT DAY
held at Tillsonburg
1968

Among winners in the Tillsonburg 4-H Calf Club achievement day, held at Tillsonburg fair last-week, were Fred Priester, R.R. 3, Tillsonburg, first for Jersey calf; Ken Empey, R.R. 1, Brownsville, first for Holstein calf, and Chris Buchner, R.R. 1, Brownsville, junior showmanship and second in the Master Feeds special.

Empey takes western fair title

Ken Empey, of Brownsville, brought home the honours from the Western Ontario Championship Holstein Show, held in London. Against a large field of competitors, Mr. Empey was awarded the winner of the Holstein Junior Showmanship Competition.

This was a noon-hour feature of the Holstein Show, featuring 20 young people from western Ontario, and their cattle.

Judge Orton Eby, of St. George, declared Ken Empey the winner. He was presented with a wall clock by Western Ontario Breeders Incorporated, as well as top prize money.

Ken Empey, Brownsville (left) won the Holstein Junior Showmanship Competition sponsored by Western Ontario Breeders Inc., Woodstock, and held in conjunction with the London Championship Holstein Show. Making the presentation of a clock wall plaque is manager of W.O.B.I., Dr. R. J. Mc Donald.