INTRODUCTION

The history of every Canadian Community is shared by the history of the Christian Church. The early settlers were eager to establish places of worship.

It is not easy for us to realize that a few years earlier, still it was a common sight to see a horse-drawn vehicle on a quiet Sunday morning bringing the faithful to the little village Church.

From tiny acorns come the mighty oaks and from small and humble beginnings our congregation grows. "Look to the rock from which you were hewn and to the quarry from which you were digged." History is a sobering thing for it enlarges our horizons and makes us not only aware of our heritage and our indebtedness, to those who have gone before, but also our continuing dependence upon the Eternal God, who, while the generations come and go, abideth forever the same.

We are deeply indebted to our Anniversary Committee, who have been laying plans for the past year, for their helpful assistance.

And now, to the future. As we start our last quarter, for our one hundred years of our Congregation, we would invite others to join with us in our work. We are set in a rapidly changing era, which will undergo a great many changes in the future as it has in the past.

The effort of our predecessors, can be made complete, by our efforts and as they go forth in faith and trust, so may we. Confident in the knowledge that the Eternal God is our refuge and our strength and that "He who began a good work, will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ".
