

VARIETY NIGHT PROGRAM STAGED AT BROWNSVILLE

1967

The community hall was well filled on Friday night when the Hall Board put on a Variety night program, with talent from the surrounding district. The Chairman for the evening was Mr. Harry Leach.

The DeMacs from Springfield, Max Rodgers and Douglas Brooks from Springfield gave a guitar and piano number. The Junior Choir from the United Church under the direction of Mr. Keith Buchner, gave two numbers, with Sally McLean accompanying at the piano.

Tap dancing group with Bonny and Penny Shackleton, Laurie Walker, Heather Putnam and Tammy Allison, accompanied by Mrs. William Shackleton, of Harrietsville, gave two numbers.

A Rock and Roll selection with the following taking part; Donald Smale, Stanley Fesert, of Mossley, Gordon Richens, John Armstrong, Bruce Smith, David Deal, of Verschoyle.

Billy Hawkins gave a talk "History of Man". An accordeon band with Donald and Jane Smale, of Mossley. Dwayne and Keven of Verschoyle, played two numbers.

A piano sola was played by Gregg Boyle of Culloden.

The Charleton family band performed, from Springfield. An accordeon solo by Jack Lambert was played. A comic selection, with Miss Ruth Spring and Douglas McClintock taking the duet part was enjoyed.

"The Family Album", was put on by the Community as a "Centennial Theme". Those taking part were as follows: Mrs. Victor Ruckle, Richard Baxter, Bradley Rothenberg, Wanda Bentley, Dean Mulholland, Linda Brown, Stephen Harris, Linda Leach, Mrs. Joe Sharpe, Arthur Helsdon, Mrs. Donald Leach, Mrs. Russell Mulholland, Michael McCrystal, Mr. & Mrs. Wayne Clarke, Mrs. Jack Richardson, Wendy Ruckle and Jacque Cardy, danced the Charleston. The singers taking part were; Mrs. Edward Harris, Mr. & Mrs. Keith Buchner, Medford Clarke, Gloria Alward and Cheryl Mulholland, they were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William Williamson.

Linda Leach portraying the role as Evelyn Harris sang "Alice Blue Gown".

Jacque Cardy and Wendy Ruckle, danced the "Charleston", to the tune of "Five Foot Two, Eyes of Blue".

Helen Mulholland Modelling an old Fashioned Bathing suit, to the tune "By the sea, the Beautiful sea", played By Elsie Williamson