

MISCELLANEOUS

Ex-reeves of Dereham Township were guests at a dinner tendered by the township council Friday and were presented with embroidered township crests. The official crest of the township is a design that was adopted recently, and Warden Harry Armstrong said they will be presented in future to all who serve on council. Seated, left to right, are: John W. Smith, reeve

1943-47; Norman Langrell, 1932-33; LeRoy Curtis, 1946-48; and Harry Little, 1949-51. Standing are George Nagle, 1961-62; Harry Armstrong, 1963-64-65; Phineas Pressey, 1959-60; Ralph McLaughlin, 1956-57-58. Absent on account of illness was William Stoakley, who was reeve in 1953-54-55.

Susan Baxter

Joy Sinclair

TWO BROWNSVILLE GIRLS are on their way this week to Doe Lake, situated north of Huntsville, where the World Centenary Camp will be held August 8-19 by Girl Guides from 35 countries. The camp is one of four being held this year to mark the centenary of the birth of Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Guide and Scout organizations. Secretary of State, Mrs. Ellen Fairclough of Hamilton, Canada's only woman Cabinet minister, will officially open the camp on August 9. Nearly 1,500 Girl Guides and Girl Scouts will attend the camp. Among these will be Susan Baxter and Joy Sinclair, both of Brownsville, representing this district and division. Both girls have been members of the 1st Tillsonburg Company for the past four years. Miss Sandra Law of Tillsonburg also is attending the camp as a Guider.

NAMED INSPECTOR

R. A. Baxter, former M.L.A. for South Oxford and an ex-warden of the county, who has been appointed inspector for the Agricultural Development Board in Oxford County.

Mr. Andrew Baxter
Brownsville Grandfather of ← Susan Baxter