

BROTHERS GRADUATE

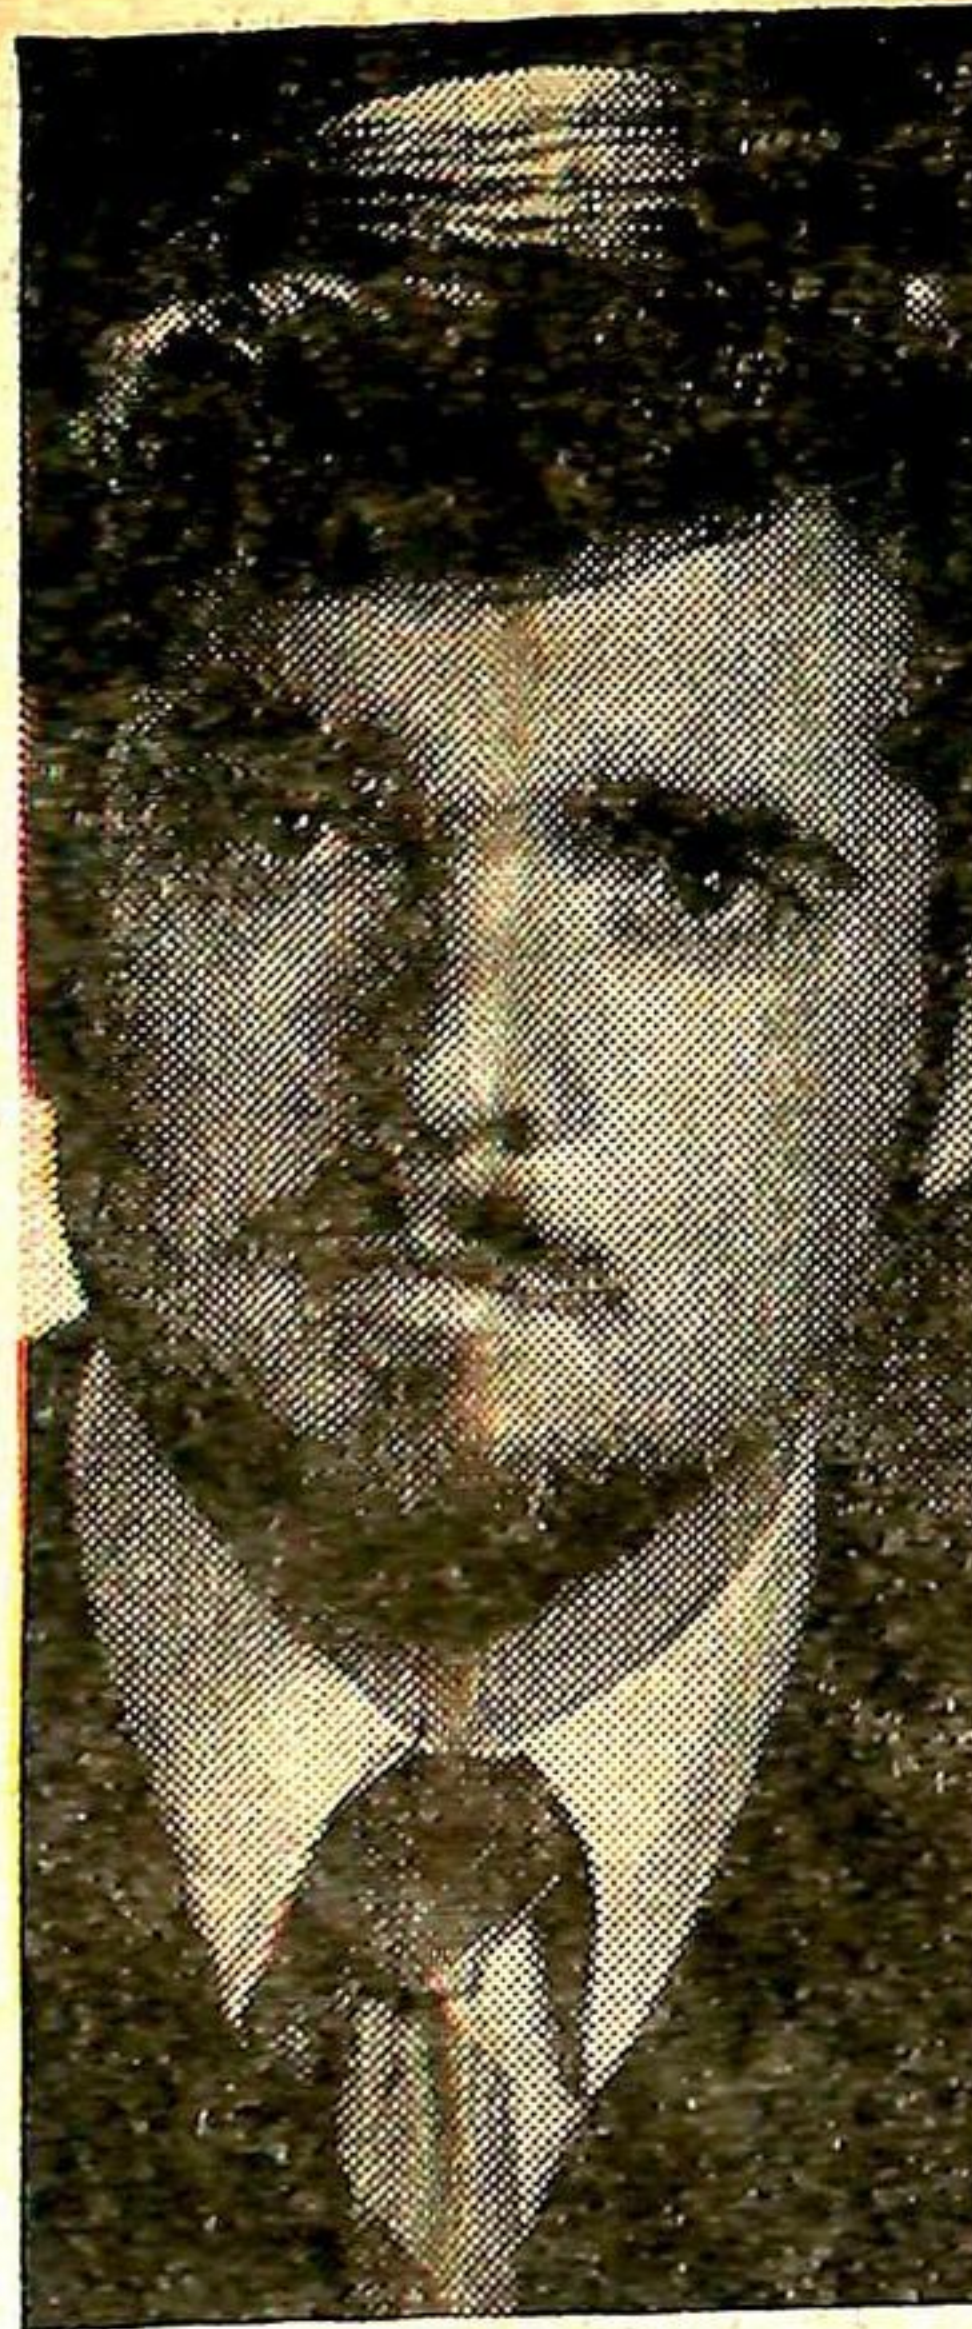

JOHN

Friday, May 29th was graduation day for John and Wayne Beecroft, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Beecroft of Otterville. Dr. John Beecroft is a graduate of Norwich District High School and the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Western Ontario. Dr. Wayne Beecroft, graduated from Norwich District High School, Upper Canada College and the Faculty of Dentistry of the University of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Beecroft attended both ceremonies.

WAYNE

GRADUATES

Mr. Wayne Pearce, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pearce, Main St., Norwich, graduated with honors from the Architectural Technology Department of Ryerson Polytechnical Institute. The ceremonies were held on Wednesday, May 13, 1970. Mr. Pearce is currently working with Architect - Instructor, Mr. David Isow on an architectural program of development and research for the mentally retarded at "Daybreak," Richmond Hill, Ontario. Wayne will return to Ryerson in September to carry on post-graduate work with emphasis on construction, management and further research into facilities for the adult retarded.

Murray Richard Jull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jull, RR 1, Norwich, received his Honors Bachelor of Arts Degree in Mathematics from the Faculty of Science at the University of Western Ontario on May 28th. He was recently awarded a postgraduate Scholarship from the National Research Council of Canada and will resume his studies at U. W. O. in September. He is presently employed by the Sunlife Insurance Co., Montreal.

1970

OXFORD ART EXHIBITION

The 12th Annual Oxford County Art exhibition opened Saturday night, at the Public Library's art gallery, Woodstock.

During the exhibit's official opening, Provincial Judge R. G. Groom of Tillsonburg, commended abstract entries, saying, people should be encouraged to put ideas on canvas. Judge Groom said a place remains for both older, conventional art and the newer kind in a changing world.

At total of 36 paintings, selected by Mario Polidori, director of the Glenhyrst Art Council at Brantford, will be on display daily until June 26.

Among the participants who had their work accepted from this district were: Mrs. Sara Moore, with two oil paintings—"Otter Creek in Winter" and "Meadow in Spring" and Dr. Lois Batson, with a silk screen of "Poppies" and "Sunlight" in inks.

BURGESSVILLE

Jansen was the former (Miss Linda Lee. Russell Orth was the Master of Ceremonies for the program. Mrs. Charles Rockett and Miss Cheryl Bickell gave a piano duet and Misses Glenda Boone and Diane Barnim gave a piano duet. Bruce Barnim favored with an accordion solo. Mr. Orth gave the address and Rudy and Linda were presented with a miscellaneous shower of gifts for which they both thanked their many friends. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cohoe, Lynne and Elizabeth attended Convocation at the Western University of Western Ontario when their son Dan Cohoe graduated from the School of Administration.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Pickering, Sanibel Island, Florida, called on the former's sister Mrs. Dorothy Glover.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ballandyne, Brantford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salmon.

Mrs. Stafford Smith attend Convocation at Western University when her nephew Peter Smith, Woodstock graduated.