Double-ring wedding ceremony unites Lynda Lee-Rudy Jansen

BURGESSVILLE — Lynda Jean Lee and Rudy Jansen were married on May 1 in a candlelight ceremony at Burgessville Baptist Church.

The church was decorated with bouquets of yellow and white 'mums and ferns.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Lee, RR 1, Burgessville, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Jansen, RR 1, Burgessville.

Rev. W. T. Brown officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Clendon Spencer, as organist played traditional wedding music and accompanied soloist Mrs. Douglas Avey who sang Wedding Prayer and Where'er You Walk.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of bridal satin made on empire lines made with needlerun rose lace yoke. The same lace was featured in frills at the neckline, around the long sleeves and at the hem of the gown. A chapel train swept gracefully from the back bodice line. A rose and orange blossom petal headdress held her embroidered veil of silk illusion and she carried a bridal cascade of gardenias, yellow roses and lily-of-the-valley enhanced with white satin streamers.

Miss Norma Smith of Vancouver, B.C., was maid of honor wearing a gown of yellow chiffon over yellow taffeta. The sleeveless bodice featured a scoop neckline and braided scroll trim. She carried a nosegay of yellow and white 'mums.

Bridesmaid Corrie Jansen and junior bridesmaid Karen Lee wore identical floor length gowns of mauve and mint green chiffon over taffeta respectively. They wore matching accessories and carried nosegays of yellow and white 'mums.

Henry Jansen, RR 1, Burgessville, performed the duties of best man and ushers were Grant Lee and Daniel Jansen, both of Burgessville.

Yellow and white 'mums decorated the church parlor for the reception where the bride's mother received guests wearing a champagne crepe and lace dress with champagne and beige accessories and a corsage in shades of orange and yellow.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of orange delight roses.

For a honeymoon in the southern United States, the bride travelled in a pale blue sleeveless crepe dress with beige tattersal coat, yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow and white carnations. On their return the couple will live at Burgessville.

Guests attended the wedding from Paris, Galt, Burgessville, Brantford, Norwich, Tillsonburg, Orillia, Woodstock, Lockport, Vancouver and London. (Photo
