RELIVE PONY EXPRESS DAYS, BEACHVILLE LYNCHING

As in the wild west days of Beachville, culprit is 'lynched'. TOP PHOTO, as the pony express makes a stop in the village before continuing on to the Woodstock

City Hall where Mayor James F. Hutchinson was presented with a letter from the mayor of Ingersoll. RIGHT PHOTO — Body of the unfortunate victim is carted away to boot hill. The event was held in conjunction with the 18th annual stamp exhibition of the Oxford Philatelic Society, taking place in the parish hall of Old St. Paul's Anglican Church today. (See Page 1 for other picture)
