overall convener, and Mrs. William Allen. Below, Mr. Gordon Cole displays some of his leather work which was offered for sale at the event.

Second Valentine tea well-attended event

Red paper hearts, cupids and bows decorated Woodingford Lodge Wednesday afternoon for the Sweetheart Tea, sponsored by the Auxiliary to Woodingford Lodge.

The tea, which was well-attended, was the second annual Valentine tea held at the Lodge and the members of the Auxiliary hope to make it an annual event.

Mrs. Edward Gregory, Mrs. Jack Atkinson, Mrs. Robert Chapman and Mrs. Herbert Wittaker were in charge of the bake tables. The tables were laden with all types of home baking and were soon sold out. Mrs. G. Kelly convened the draw for the Valentine cake.

In the tea room, the main tea table was decorated with a red tablecloth and a large bouquet of red carnations, white pom pom 'mums, and baby 'mums., with red bows. A large basket of similar flowers was placed at the front of the room.

The individual tables were decorated with white tablecloths and red cupids.

Members in charge of the decorations were Mrs. Lloyd Topham, Mrs. Frank Manson and Mrs. Reba Logan.

The tea servers were: Mrs. John Julian, Mrs. Alfred Stevens, Mrs. John Reinders, Mrs. Walter Thorne, Mrs. Alex Murray, Mrs. Verne Campbell, Mrs. Douglas Lowe, Mrs. Albert Andrews, Mrs. Lloyd Topham, Mrs. Arthur Cordingly, Mrs. F. Lander and Mrs. Henry Bert.

Ladies helping in the kitchen were Mrs. J. Donkars, Mrs. J. Sutherland, Mrs. M. Whitehead, Mrs. C. Landers, Mrs. C. Chamb's, and Mrs. N. Volmershausen.

The tea also gave many of the residents the opportunity to display the work they have done in the craft room. There was a wide array of articles for visitors to view from pin holders to hooked rugs.

Other handiwork on display included pieces of driftwood, aprons, paintings wall plaques, jewellery, jewellery boxes, dolls, leathercrafts, table centres, sewing boxes, knitted articles and baby shoes.

These articles are all for sale at reasonable prices and the craft room is open during the day for anyone wishing to come and do a little shopping.
