

MR. AND MRS. DAVID PETER DELEEBECK
(Country Lane Studio, Aylmer)

Deleebbeck-Longworth

Two baskets of white mum arrangements decorated St. Ladislaus R.C. Church, Courland, on October 28, 1977, at 2:30 p.m. for the wedding of Patricia Longworth of 70 Maple Villa Tillsonburg, and David Peter Deleebbeck son of Mr. and Mrs. August Deleebbeck of RR 3, Delhi. Rev. Thomas Beothy, S.J., officiated and Linda Scott of Simcoe, sang Sunrise, Sunset during the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Longworth of RR 1, Burgessville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white, polyester, interlock halter dress accented with Madeira lace trim and completed by a matching jacket with high neckline and tiny button back closing, with the back falling into a cathedral train. Her veil was edged with lace and held by a crescent of flowers and she carried a cascade arrangement of white mums and red roses.

Lynda Prohammer of Kitchener, friend of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an empire waisted polyester gown in bright royal blue, accented by a figured sheer jacket with bracelet length sleeves. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies, white mums and blue cornflowers.

Bridesmaids, Sheryl Pilkey of Burgessville, Glenna McLees of Courtland, both friends of the bride, and Rosemary Barbier of Aylmer, cousin of the groom, wore similar gowns to that of the maid of honor, only in French blue shade. Kathy Longworth of Burgessville, sister of the bride, was flower girl and wore an empire waisted, floor-length, sheer gown matching the bridesmaids jackets, with elbow length sleeves.

Her headdress was a crescent of pale blue flowers and she carried a smaller arrangement to match the bridesmaid's flowers.

Best man was Brian Deleebbeck of RR 3, Delhi, brother of the groom. Ushers were Fred Longworth of Woodstock, brother of the bride, Frank Deleebbeck of RR 2, St. Williams, cousin of the groom, Tony Lados of RR 7, Simcoe, friend of the groom, and Bill Longworth of RR 1, Burgessville, brother of the bride.

Dinner for 240 guests and reception for 700 was held at the Delhi Belgian Club. Bride's table featured a four tiered cake flanked by white tapers and guests' tables were decorated with red rose buds with powder blue tablecloths. Master of ceremonies was Mr. Fred (Leroy) Newton of Woodstock.

For receiving guests, the bride's mother chose a long gown of apricot polyester with front draping, worn with a rosebud corsage to match her gown. Groom's mother chose a long sheer gown in wedgwood blue with sheer over layers topped by a mink stole, and worn with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Bride's gifts to her attendants were silver necklaces, and groom's gifts were leather key cases.

For a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the bride wore a brown, polyester knit jumpsuit and a corsage of white.

Guests included the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newton of Burgessville, grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. William DeWinnie of Aylmer and Mr. and Mrs. Deleebbeck, Sr., of Vittoria. Other guests were present from Detroit, Pontiac, Marlette, Hamilton, Kitchener, Norwich, Aylmer, Simcoe, Burgessville, Woodstock and Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Deleebbeck are residing at RR 2, Tillsonburg.

The Co-Op building in Burgessville has been transformed into the Buchaneer Restaurant and Mother's Day was the official opening day. All mothers were presented with a flower and here Mrs. Beverly Buchan pins a bud to the lapel of Mrs. Durelle DeCooman.

May 14/78

The members of the Burgessville and East Oxford Baptist Churches welcomed a new minister in an induction service on the evening of May 11 in Burgessville. The Rev. James Newman was presented to the members of the congregations by Ralph Higgins, representing East Oxford.

May 14/78 Burgessville News

BURGESSVILLE (C) - Members of the Burgessville and East Oxford Churches gathered together at the Burgessville Baptist Church on Thursday night for the induction services for their new Pastor, Rev. James Newman. Rev. Ken Morrisson preached the Induction service. Lunch and a social time followed.

Achievement day was held on Saturday for the 4-H Clubs when they had their work and books on display. Four girls of Unit 2 of Burgessville, with their leaders, Mrs. Bob Moore and Mrs. Victor Moore, attended. The girls received their certificates and teaspoons having completed the unit on

A birthday party was held on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Waud in honor of their grandson, Steven McGaw, and his uncle, Norman Smith, both of Ingersoll. Steven celebrates his birthday on May 17th and enjoys many trips throughout Canada in his diving career. Recently he won first and third at Ottawa and flew to Edmonton for a diving competition.

Mother's Day guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.M. Hoover were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Hoover, and Larry, Waterloo and sons Billy and David Hoover, Toronto.

Congratulations to Marty and Bev. Buchan on the opening of their new restaurant in Burgessville.

Mrs. John Snodgrass (nee [unclear] a wetis) and daughter grandmother, Mrs. Stafford Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Chant, Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Stone and baby son, Toronto spent the week end at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Emerson Chant.