Morley 50th anniversary celebrated by family

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Morley of Burgessville celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, June 24, 1979, when their family honored them with a family dinner party at the Elm Hurst, Ingersoll which was attended by relatives and friends from London, Glanworth, Otterville, Dorchester, Ingersoll, Norwich and Burgessville.

The King Edward dining room was beautifully arranged and decorated with yellow roses and other mixed flower arrangements. Mrs. Morley received wearing a floor length dress of blue figured sheer with a gold coloured orchid. Mr. Sam Richardson was master of ceremonies bringing congratulations and best wishes and reminiscing of the Morley home during the past years. Mrs. Evelyn Waring spoke of her relationship with the Morley family throughout the years and bringing along her wishes. Dante Pocrnich expressed his best wishes to his grandparents and Isabel Pocrnich proposed the toast to her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Morley replied each relating humorous incidents of 50 years ago.

All adjourned to the spacious lawns where pictures were taken of the families and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley were married on June 22, 1929 at the home of the bride's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Levi Howell of Norwich, by the late Rev. George Morley, brother of the groom.

Mr. Morley is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Morley of Burgessville.

The attendants at the wedding were the sister of the bride, Mrs. Alex Wiles of Norwich and the late Roy McIntyre was best man.

Following their marriage they have lived in the Burgessville area for the past 50 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. John (Isabel) Pocrnich and Mrs. Mike (Lavina) Pocrnich, both of London, also four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley were the recipients of many cards, flowers and gifts including messages from Dr. Bruce Halliday, M.P., Dr. Harry Parrott, M.P.P., and a plaque from Premier William G. Davis.
