Wed at Burgessville

Burgessville United Church was the setting on Saturday, May 26, 1979, at 2 p.m. when Rosemary J. McKiernan and David Wayne Davis exchanged wedding vows in a doublering ceremony, with Rev. Max Johnson of the Burgessville United Church officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with lighted candelabra and flowers. Mrs. Charles Rockett presided at the console of the organ and played traditional wedding music.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKiernan of RR 4, Woodstock, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs.

Howard Davis of RR 2, Burgessville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white chiffon over polyester, enhanced with an alencon lace bodice and a high waistline which extended in the back to the bouffant skirt. A Juliet lace cap held her tiered, French illusion, full-length veil which outlined the hem of her gown and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses and white feathered mums.

Maid of honor was Rosemary DeWaele and the bridesmaids were Joanne Swatzky and Debbie Kaufman, all friends of the bride. They wore identical, full-length gowns in watermelon polyester, with matching chiffon capes. A comb with baby's breath and matching flowers was worn in their hair and each carried a basket of yellow roses and coral daisies.

Jacolyn McKiernan, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a yellow, floor-length gown styled similar to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of red roses and yellow daisies.

Ken McKiernan, also a cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Lavern Rock, a friend of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Ronald Davis, brother of the groom, and Brian McKiernan, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was held at the Burgessville United Church. The bride's table was covered with a white damask cloth and centred with the three-tiered wedding cake, lighted candelabra and the bridal bouquets.

For receiving guests, the bride's mother chose a heavenly blue, floor-length, polyester gown with corsage of pink carnations, while the groom's mother chose a dusty rose, polyester gown with corsage of white mums tinged with yellow.

A reception and dance was held at the Norwich Civic Centre for around 360 guests.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Owen Sound and Collingwood, the bride chose a powder blue, fourpiece, polyester suit with a corsage of red roses and feathered mums.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are residing in Burgessville.

Prior to the wedding the bridesmaids entertained at a miscellaneous shower in her honor also the aunts of the groom.

A stag party was arranged for the groom by the best man and ushers.

QUEEN MOTHER VIEWS PARADE

Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, and Maritime Command Commander Vice-Admiral Andre Collier view the parading of the old color, prior to the presenting of the new Queen's Color to Maritime Command. The ceremony took place in Halifax Wednesday. 2741919

MR. AND MRS. DAVID WAYNE DAVIS

Burgessville News

Mr. Douglas Hoover, Burgessville, accompanied by his grandson Tom Hoover, Mt. Elgin, spent four days at the summer home of Ralph Banbury. Belleville, at Lake Kassabog. Also present were Andie Watson MPP, and son, Chatham. Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wray Broad were Miss Sheri Blackmore. Elliott Lake, Mr. Rick Coombs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stuart, Miss Tara Stuart, Mr. Carl Salmon all of Langley, British Columbia. Carl also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Salmon.

family, Chatham, spent the past week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ross Palmer and aunt, Miss Marion Palmer.

Mrs. Ross Hughes has returned home after spending two weeks with her cousin in Calgary, Alberta.

Members of the Baptist Church and Sunday School travelled by bus on Saturday and toured the Welland Canal Mission. Rev. Arthur Taylor is the missionary there and speaks to the sailors of the boats as they travel through.

The Daily Vacation Bible School begins Monday and is on for the week. Rev. and Mrs. Blake Hunt are in charge.

True worth is in being, not seeming,

In doing, each day that goes by, Some little good, not in dreaming Of great things to do by and

For whatever men say in their blindness,

And in spite of fancies of youth,

There's nothing so kingly as kindness,

And nothing so royal as truth.

(Alice Cary)

A mistake at least proves somebody stopped talking long enough to do something.

The load of tomorrow added to that of yesterday, carried today, makes the strongest falter.

Worry is interest paid on trouble before it is due.

Burgessville News

BURGESSVILLE (C) -Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Morley spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harold Waring.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Talbot, Bayfield, spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.M. Hoover. The Talbots were former Burgessville residents.

Mrs. Jack Gilchrist and children, Sharon and Paul, Brampton, spent the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clifford. Lois was one of the leaders at the DVB school.

Miss Ann Hughs, Mountburg, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hughs.

Mike (Lavina) Pocrnic, London, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Morley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parkhill spent the past week with their nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilcox, Point Au Baril, at the cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur

Morley attended the wedding of Friday of their daughter, Isobel Poernic, London, to Donald Rennie, London. They will be living at Ilderton. Congratulations to Isobel and Don.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Larmon were hosts for a birthday supper on Sunday on the occasion of Miss Maude Dennis' 89th thday. Fourteen relatives attended.

> Our Wisdom Corner: Truth may be stretched, but cannot be broken, and always gets above falsehood, as oil does above water.

The best place to fins a helping hand is at the end of your arm.

The highest reward for man's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it.

The most difficult secret for a man to keep is the opinion he has of himself.