Oct. 22/80

BURGESSVILLE (C) — Frank Broad of Woodingford Lodge formerly of Burgessville celebrated his 90th birthday at a family gathering at the home farm. In the afternoon seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren came to visit and have birthday cake and ice cream. The immediate family enjoyed a ham supper and social hour. Greetings were also received from Dr. Harry Parrott and Dr. Bruce Halliday.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Broad were Mr. and Mrs. Don Ross of Dwight, Ontario, and Beth Ross from Hamilton.

Tree decorating

Oxford County Museum School teacher Marie Avey gives Doug Haycock, a Grade 8 student from Victory Memorial School in Ingersoll, a hand with decorating this huge cedar Christmas tree at the museum school. Doug was one of several students at the school last week to decorate it in 1930's style for the Christmas season.

Village Market

The Village Market, operated by Leo and Tina Jubenville in Burgessville, is a grocery store that hopes to meet most of the needs of the local community. Mr. and Mrs. Jubenville, who live at Muir, recently purchased the store and opened it the last week of January for business. Mrs. Jubenville said the store gets fairly good support from the community.
