

The Queen Mother

This photo of Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother was taken during her last visit to Canada in June, 1979. She celebrates her 80th birthday Aug. 4. Her hat and dress are white and green.

Vic Moore, an employee with the North Norwich Municipal Telephone System in Burgessville, hooks up a new telephone connection at the main frame. He has been with the company for about 30 years.

WHO ARE THEY?

These brothers are now both active in a field of the dairy industry. They have another interest in which they share the spotlight. To name it would give a clue. They are twins. They are among the contributors to the Woodstock Junior Chamber of Commerce March of Dimes campaign. Who are they?

Left, Walter, right, Elder Barlow.

Page 12 Section 2 THE NORWICH GAZETTE February 27, 1980

General manager of the North Norwich Municipal Telephone System, Ardyth Williams, and clerk Doreen Orth go over the cheques sent in by subscribers to the system.

The telephone system located in Burgessville is one of only 34 or 35 independent systems still surviving in Ontario.