Burgessville setting for pretty wedding

Burgessville United Church was the setting for the lovely afternoon wedding on October 1, 1983, of Carolyn Anne Malcolm and Kenneth James Woodley. Rev. Norman Pick of Clinton, cousin of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Vocal accompaniment was provided by Lois Bailey with Faye Bailey at the piano.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Malcolm of Burgessville, and the groom is the son of Mrs. C. Bover of Chelmsford, Essex, England.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a dress of ivory chantilly lace over silk with a fitted bodice, net insert with a stand-up collar, full length puffed sleeves and deep buttoned cuffs. The skirt was gored forming a chapel train. Her silk veil was held in place by a small profile hat of ivory lace and pearl bead trimming. The bride carried an arm bouquet of cream yellow chatalaya orchids, light yellow azaleas, mauve primroses and cherry blossoms.

Matron of honor was Cheryl Bell, friend of the bride, and bridesmaids were Janette Maxwell from Scotland, a friend, and Marie Smith, a cousin. They wore identical, long, full, unfitted lined dresses of mauve silk crepe and carried ivory fans with yellow portral roses, yellow seventh heaven, mauve cherry blossoms and cream green grape ivy.

The groom was dressed in full Scotch regalia. Best man was Keith Bover, brother of the groom, from England. ushers were Andrew Malcolm, brother of the bride, dressed in kilts and Bill Smith from England, friend of the groom.

Piper MacRobbie of Embro piped the bridal party from the church and piped them into Oxford Centre hall where guests were greeted by the bridal party and Mrs. Malcolm, wearing a long dress of rose silk crepe with embroidered medallions.

Carolyn and Ken will be residing in Chelmsford, Essex, England.
