

Moment of silence

Students from Rehoboth Christian School in Norwich were joined by a few others from the community on Thursday, November 11 for the annual service of remembrance conducted by Branch 190 of the Royal Canadian Legion, Norwich, at the cenotaph. All joined in a moment of silence in memory of those who died in both wars. (NG Photo)

Legion parade

Second World War veteran Jack Woods was part of the Legion parade from Norwich Branch 190, that took part in the annual Remembrance Day service for school children on Thursday, November 11 at the cenotaph. Mr. Woods laid the wreath in memory of those who died in both wars. (NG Photo)

1982