at Holy Trinity church

Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Norwich was the setting on October 2, 1982, at 2:30 p.m. for the wedding of Kathleen Victoria Cayley and Graham Scott DeCooman. Rev. Herb Herring officiated. Mrs. Muriel Kozuch accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Janet DeCloet, of Tillsonburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cayley of Norwich, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rene DeCooman of RR 1, Norwich.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of Venetian lace and organza, worn with a matching headpiece, accented with seed pearls, which held her waist-length veil.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kim Herreman of RR 1, Norwich, friend of the bride and bridesmaids were Miss Karen Lusk of Norwich, Mrs. Margaret Mutch of Tillsonburg, both friends of the bride, Miss Nancy DeCooman and Miss Cindy DeCooman, both of RR 1 Norwich, sisters of the groom. They wore taffeta gowns with full skirts.

Best man was Mr. Wayne Herreman of RR 1 Norwich, friend of the groom and ushers were Mr. Wally Cayley of Norwich, brother of the bride, Mr. Paul Bradley of Norwich, friend of the groom, Mr. Richard DeCooman of Burford, and Mr. Kirk DeCooman of RR 1, Norwich, brother of the groom.

Reception for 330 guests was held at the Delhi Belgian Club. Master of ceremonies was Mr. Gordon Cayley of Lucknow, uncle of the

For their wedding trip to points north, the bride wore a french blue taffeta dress and black accessories.

Guests attended the wedding from Toronto, Lucknow, Hamilton, Kitchener and surrounding area.

Mr. and Mrs. DeCooman are residing in Norwich.
