

uosa

The May meeting of the Elmwood Women's Institute was held at the Library hall with Mrs. Blanche Falkingham presiding. Mrs. Helen Pratt read the scripture lesson from Psalm 17.

Roll call consisted of the exchange of plants and slips. Sixteen members and six visitors responded.

The program of the 20th Grey Centre District annual, to be held at Stoddart Hall, Priceville, was read and discussed, with a number of our members planning to attend.

Fourteen visits were made to sick and shut-ins during April. Be Mrs. Mary Jackson and Mrs. Marie Mauer will be the visiting team in May.

Current events were presented by Mrs. Ivan Fidler.

Mrs. Helen Taylor gave the bir motto - Love is like paint, it Bla makes things beautiful when you Mr spread it, but it just dries up when it isn't used. Love like true my paint, has to be given special care "M and the beauty will shine. We ma should strive to spread our love tha instead of keeping it bottled up Bib within us and letting it dry out ger and harden. Several of Alic bus McChace's poems were read by fut Mrs. Falkingham.

Mrs. Georgina Fizell and Mrs. Mary Jackson, two capable Mr: auctioneers, conducted the Rei successful sale, with bidding whi brisk and many bargains ob- Fiz tained.

Mrs
Nove
hom